Red And The Green:

Red, Green, or Murder Steven F. Havill, 2024-04-02 Former Posadas County Sheriff Bill Gastner now a New Mexico Livestock Inspector is enjoying a day on Herb Torrance's ranch soaking in the sun counting a small herd of cattle and thinking about meeting an old friend back in town for lunch. But suddenly a light breeze stirs the dust a horse spooks and Bill finds himself ferrying a broken cowpuncher in the back of his SUV headed out to meet an ambulance. Moments later Bill's day goes from bad to worse. He is summoned by undersheriff Estelle Reyes Guzman to investigate an unattended death. Too impatient to wait for Bill his friend George Payton decided to eat lunch on his own. A couple of bites later he collapsed dead of an apparent heart attack. But something isn't right. Then the small herd of cattle Bill had just counted is found wandering down a county highway. But there's no sign of cowpuncher Pat Gabaldon or his boss 40 000 truck and livestock trailer. Forced into two tangled investigations Bill faces one of the most complex cases in his 35 year career. The Green Red Green Red Green, 2012-10-16 Red Green was recycling material long before the green revolution got underway. Look at the automobiles he's driven over the years. Many of those were assembled using the same basic method employed for The Green Red Green by welding together the surviving bits of some old wrecks. In this case we're talking about the three Red Green books published long ago by other inferior publishers. Duct Tape Is Not Enough a collection of newspaper columns by Red Green's alter ego Steve Smith on surviving middle age. Red Green Talks Cars and Red's literary debut The Red Green Book a souvenir of the TV show. The selection for his best of pretty much made itself. Out went the Steve Smith columns with once topical references. Out went the material from The Red Green Book that was in the voices of the other characters he's been carrying those bums for too long and out went very little from the perennially hilarious Cars. The resulting mass of pieces have been well shaken into a new mix re-edited to new levels of sharpness and hilarity and updated so that for example jokes about hairstyles now feature Russell Brand and not Rod Stewart. And the perfectly competent illustrations from the previous books have been replaced by much better incompetent ones by the author so that the look of this book very much resembles How to Do Everything. The Red-green Coalition in Germany Charles Lees, 2000 This text provides a perspective on the politics and personalities of post war Germany's most unstable and apparently unpredictable national government to date. The author uses previously unpublished research into Red Green coalitions in the German Lander in order to understand more clearly the nature of the pressures acting upon Germany's first national coalition between the Social Democrats and the Greens. Charles Lees argues that the Red Green coalition is best understood as part of an ongoing process of political co-operation between two distinct and often antagonistic parties. Grounded and introduced in the context of recent work on coalition theory and public policy analysis the book examines the trail of political trial and error that has led the two parties from the mutual suspicion of the early 1980s to being partners in national government today. Drawing on the political history of Red Green coalitions in Germany the author explains why Chancellor Schroeder's 1998 election triumph provoked such excitement and why his government's subsequent political travails could have been predicted Red Green's Beginner's Guide to Women Red Green, 2014-10-14 Red Green's wisdom, wit and whimsy on mankind's greatest challenge now in paperback Red Green is celebrated as one of the handiest men in North America. But as well as being a purveyor of inventive practical advice on for example making a jetpack from two propane tanks, a hybrid car from recycled golf carts and satellite dishes and a kiddie ride from a bar stool attached to the agitator of a washing machine Red Green is also noted for his insights into that most difficult of assembly jobs, human relationships. His previous bestselling tome How to Do Everything showed Red dipping his toe into the self-help genre with such items as How to make dinner more romantic and The easy way to raise children. Now Red Green, a veteran husband of Bernice, father, soul searcher, philosopher and observer, has devoted an entire book to sharing with other battle-weary and confused males all he has learned about the differences between the sexes. Set out in approximately chronological order from teen dating to the last words of men, you know honey in the last couple of years you've really packed on the beef, this is the testosterone owner's manual to every aspect of finding a mate and then learning to deal with her growing disappointment in you. The man who has already shared such morsels as If you can't be handsome be handy and Quando omni flunkus moritati When all else fails, play dead here presents a Ph.D. in life lessons about the most vexing problem facing mankind today or any day, women.
