Moviemakers of Hollywood's Golden Age at the American Film Institute George Stevens, Jr., 2009-05-27 ONE OF THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER S 100 GREATEST FILM BOOKS OF ALL TIME The first book to bring together interviews of master moviemakers from the American Film Institute s renowned seminars Conversations with the Great Moviemakers offers an unmatched history of American cinema in the words of its greatest practitioners Here are the incomparable directors Frank Capra Elia Kazan King Vidor David Lean Fritz Lang I learned only from bad films William Wyler and George Stevens renowned producers and cinematographers celebrated screenwriters Ray Bradbury and Ernest Lehman as well as the immortal Ingmar Bergman and Federico Fellini Making a movie is a mathematical operation It s absolutely impossible to improvise Taken together these conversations offer uniquely intimate access to the thinking the wisdom and the genius of cinema s most talented pioneers      Key Command T. K. Kionka, 2006 From his command post in Cairo Illinois Grant led troops to Union victories at Belmont Fort Henry and Fort Donelson Kionka interweaves the story of Grant s military successes and advancement with a social history of Cairo highlighting the area s economic gains and the contributions of civilian volunteers through first person accounts Provided by publisher      Living Nonviolently Gabriel Moran, 2011-03-31 Are human beings naturally violent Is war the fate of the human race Despite the depressing record of the past the world s future depends upon avoiding war and drastically reducing violence Living Nonviolently Language for Resisting Violence examines carefully the language of violence and war One of the first casualties of violence is language which in turn makes resistance to violence difficult to articulate In the first four chapters Gabriel Moran proposes distinctions for the interconnected ideas of force power aggressiveness violence and war not to invent a new and logical language but to ground the meaning of these terms in our human experience That revitalization of ordinary language depends upon an inclusive language of men and women adults and children human and nonhuman animals The fifth chapter locates the potential for both encouraging violence and resisting violence in the peculiar logic of religion Jesus Sermon on the Mount is commonly invoked by people who say that nonviolence may be an admirable ideal for a few people but it is irrelevant for most people and for all nations in this chapter Moran examines the widely misunderstood sermon in detail to illustrate its potential for resisting violence For a conclusion he discusses practical means of education that are helpful to reaching some understanding of violence and resistance to violence Living Nonviolently is written for scholars in peace studies political philosophy or religious studies and for anyone who wishes to understand the roots of violence and war      Papers and

Gutiérrez, 2017-01-20 It is impossible to reproduce the state of mind of the men who waged war in 1917 and 1918 Edward Coffman wrote in The War to End All Wars In Doughboys on the Great War the voices of thousands of servicemen say otherwise The majority of soldiers from the American Expeditionary Forces returned from Europe in 1919 Where many were simply asked for basic data veterans from four states Utah Minnesota Connecticut and Virginia were given questionnaires soliciting additional information and remarks Drawing on these questionnaires completed while memories were still fresh this book presents a chorus of soldiers voices speaking directly of the expectations motivations and experiences as infantrymen on the Western Front in World War I What was it like to kill or maim German soldiers To see friends killed or maimed by the enemy To return home after experiencing such violence Again and again soldiers wrestle with questions like these putting into words what only they can tell They also reflect on why they volunteered why they fought what their training was and how ill prepared they were for what they found overseas They describe how they interacted with the civilian populations in England and France how they saw the rewards and frustrations of occupation duty when they desperately wanted to go home and perhaps most significantly what it all added up to in the end Together their responses create a vivid and nuanced group portrait of the soldiers who fought with the American Expeditionary Forces on the battlefields of Aisne Marne Argonne Forest Belleau Wood Chateau Thierry the Marne Metz Meuse Argonne St Mihiel Sedan and Verdun during the First World War The picture that emerges is often at odds with the popular notion of the disillusioned doughboy Though hardened and harrowed by combat the veteran heard here is for the most part proud of his service service undertaken for duty honor and country In short a hundred years later the doughboy once more speaks in his own true voice

In the Best Interest of Students Kelly Gallagher, 2023-10-10 In his new book In the Best Interest of Students Staying True to What Works in the ELA Classroom teacher and author Kelly Gallagher notes that there are real strengths in the Common Core standards and there are significant weaknesses as well He takes the long view reminding us that standards come and go but good teaching remains grounded in proven practices that sharpen students literacy skills Instead of blindly adhering to the latest standards movement Gallagher suggests Increasing the amount of reading and writing students are doing while giving students more choice around those activities Balancing rigorous high quality literature and non fiction works with student selected titles Encouraging readers to deepen their comprehension by moving beyond the four corners of the text Planning lessons that move beyond Common Core expectations to help young writers achieve more authenticity through the blending of genres Using modeling to enrich students writing skills in the prewriting drafting and revision stages Resisting the de emphasis of narrative and imaginative reading and writing Amid the frenzy of trying to teach to a new set of standards Kelly Gallagher is a strong voice of reason reminding us that instruction should be anchored around one guiding question What is in the best interest of our students
