NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Alan Bradley author of the most award winning series debut of any year returns with another irresistible Flavia de Luce novel In the hamlet of Bishop s Lacey the insidiously clever and unflappable eleven year old sleuth Flavia de Luce had asked a Gypsy woman to tell her fortune never expecting to later stumble across the poor soul bludgeoned almost to death in the wee hours in her own caravan Was this an act of retribution by those convinced that the soothsayer abducted a local child years ago Certainly Flavia understands the bliss of settling scores revenge is a delightful pastime when one has two odious older sisters But how could this crime be connected to the missing baby As the red herrings pile up Flavia must sort through clues fishy and foul to untangle dark deeds and dangerous secrets The Red Herring Charles Cros,John Crombie,Kickshaws (Firm),2008 Red Herring Edward Acheson,1932 Enemy Within Sally Spencer,2013-02-01 a standout among her reliably entertaining procedurals Kirkus Starred Review The tenth in the acclaimed Inspector Woodend series There had never been a murder in Whitebridge like this one What kind of man would decide to slash the throat of an inoffensive middle aged widow who was already terminally ill Why did he decide to place her lifeless body in the middle of a children's bonfire and then set it alight. It is the most difficult and complex case in Woodend's career but the two people he most relies on, DI Rutter and DS Paniatowski, are being torn apart by their personal problems. As he struggles on almost single handedly, he comes to the reluctant conclusion that he is being forced to participate in the killer's game without even knowing the rules. Yet one thing at least is plain from the beginning: For the game to continue there must be more deaths.
