Red High Heels:

Red High Heels in Heaven Deanna Hill, 2011-09-27 On the way to Nebraska in 1986 my life was changed forever in the blink of an eye when the tour bus on which I was traveling slammed into an 18 wheel tanker After the accident and during my recovery my sister was keeping a journal which she told me was to help me write my book From time to time through the years I thought about that book especially when I would share my story at churches or one on one and people would say You need to write a book However my second thought would always be Who would ever want to read about me and I would shove the idea back to the corner of my mind where it had been hanging out for years Finally a few years ago after being introduced to a word processor I sat down and began to write my story The computer made the writing part easy enough but telling the story was one of the most difficult things I have ever done It took weeks and weeks of reading and rereading my sister's journal and digging up memories deeply buried which were painful to review I won't say it was exactly a labor of love but I am glad I finally did it It is my prayer that people will be encouraged and inspired by reading how God has brought me through it all If I seem courageous or special in any way it is because of Him Red Stilettos Ruth Joseph, 2013-01-24 This sensational collection of quality short stories is perfect for the mainstream fiction market The writing style is deft and stylish but accessible on many levels making it attractive to those buying for book groups and readers who enjoy quality short fiction Ruth Joseph lives in Cardiff Wales where she is part of the strong Jewish community She has a strong evocative voice which speaks directly to the reader about guilt love and food Her work has previously been published by Honno Parthian and Loki
