Red Ink Drew Lopenzina, 2012-03-01 The Native peoples of colonial New England were quick to grasp the practical functions of Western literacy Their written literary output was composed to suit their own needs and expressed views often in resistance to the agendas of the European colonists they were confronted with Red Ink is an engaging retelling of American colonial history one that draws on documents that have received scant critical and scholarly attention to offer an important new interpretation grounded in indigenous contexts and perspectives Author Drew Lopenzina reexamines a literature that has been compulsively corrected and overinscribed with the norms and expectations of the dominant culture while simultaneously invoking the often violent tensions of contact and the processes of unwitnessing by which Native histories and accomplishments were effectively erased from the colonial record In a compelling narrative arc Lopenzina enables the reader to travel through a history that however familiar has never been fully appreciated or understood from a Native centered perspective

Illustrative Bookkeeping E. Virgil Neal, Charles Thompson Cragin, 1900 The Authorship of the Equatorie of the Planetis Kari Anne Rand Schmidt, Kari Anne Rand, 1993 Detailed examination of the evidence linking the authorship of the Equatorie of the Planetis with Chaucer The Equatorie of the Planetis a Middle English text on the construction and use of a planetary equatorium was composed in 1393 The unique manuscript which appears to be the author's original belongs to Peterhouse Cambridge In 1952 it was brought to general attention by Derek Price who argued that the text was written by Geoffrey Chaucer Whether the Equatorie is indeed Chaucer's has remained controversial ever since Dr Rand Schmidt's book offers a detailed examination of the literary linguistic and codicological evidence linking the authorship of the Equatorie with Chaucer She analyses and compares the manuscript with other specimens proposed as Chaucer's hand and evaluates the available methods of testing The volume includes a new transcription of the Equatorie accompanied by a facsimile of the MS and a KWIC concordance to the text Diplomatic transcriptions of three Middle English astronomical texts have also been included and are printed here for the first time Dr KARI ANNE RAND SCHMIDT is a language specialist teaching in the Department of English at the University of Oslo

Found in Transition Yiu-Wai Chu, 2018-10-16 Presents an updated account of Hong Kong and its culture two decades after its reversion to China In Found in Transition Yiu Wai Chu examines the fate of Hong Kong's unique cultural identity in the contexts of both global capitalism and the increasing influence of China Drawing on recent developments especially with respect to language movies and popular songs as modes of resistance to Mainlandization and different forms of censorship Chu explores the challenges facing Hong Kong twenty years after its reversion to China as a Special Administrative Region Highlighting locality and hybridity along postcolonial lines of interpretation he also attempts to imagine the future of Hong Kong by utilizing Hong Kong studies as a method Chu argues that the study of Hong Kong the place where the impact of the rise of China is most intensely felt can shed light on emergent crises in different areas of the world As such this book represents a consequential follow up to the author's Lost in Transition and a valuable contribution to international area and cultural studies This is a wide ranging and worthy sequel to Chu's Lost in Transition By juxtaposing a series of critical issues urban development self writing language education and cultural production among others that have confounded those who care deeply about this former British colony Chu offers his readers an intelligent and sensitive guide to connect and make sense of the various debates and he places the conundrums Hong Kong faces in the contexts of both the limits of neoliberal capitalism and the Age of China Leo K Shin author of The Making of the Chinese State Ethnicity and Expansion on the Ming Borderlands

Printing Trades Blue Book, 1916 The Unseen History of International Law Mark Somos, Matthew Cleary, Pablo Dufour, Edward Jones Corredera, Emanuele Salerno, 2025-04-30 The Unseen History of International Law locates and describes almost one thousand surviving copies of the first nine editions of Hugo Grotius De iure belli ac pacis IBP published between 1625 and 1650 Meticulously reconstructing the publishing history of these first nine editions and cataloguing copies across hundreds of collections The Unseen History provides fundamental data for reconstructing the impact of IBP across time and space It also examines annotations that thousands of owners and readers have left in IBP copies over four centuries offering original insights into the development of international law Grotius De iure belli ac pacis has been commonly regarded as the foundation of modern international law since its first appearance in 1625 Most major international law scholars have engaged with IBP often owning and richly annotating their own copies At key moments including the demise of the Holy Roman Empire the fall of Napoleon and the end of both world wars IBP was reissued with new commentaries by multinational projects devoted to restarting the international order Despite the enormous literature on IBP s reception and influence we cannot fully understand its impact without uncovering the history of IBP as a physical object with hundreds of thousands of unpublished annotations arguing or agreeing with the text updating and adapting its contents Approaching Grotius seminal work as a physical vehicle of the author s the publishers owners and readers engagement The Unseen History radically expands and revises our understanding not only of IBP but also of the academic discipline and lived practice of modern international law over the last four centuries In addition to delving into the first nine editions printing history descriptive bibliography and both Grotius and the publishers marketing and donation strategies the book explores Grotius subsequent impact on pro slavery and abolitionist litigation as a case study of how the census original findings can be applied to specific areas of reception

New Studies in the Manuscript Tradition of Njáls saga Svanhildur Óskarsdóttir, Emily Lethbridge, 2018-10-22 Njáls saga is the best known and most highly regarded of all medieval Icelandic sagas and it occupies a special place in Icelandic cultural history The manuscript tradition is exceptionally rich and extensive The oldest extant manuscripts date to only a couple of decades after the saga's composition in the late 13th century and the saga was subsequently copied by hand continuously up until the 20th century even alongside the circulation of printed text editions in latter centuries The manuscript corpus as a whole has great socio historical value showcasing the myriad ways in which generations of Icelanders interpreted the saga and took an active part in its transmission the manuscripts are also valuable sources for evidence of linguistic change and other phenomena The essays in this volume present new research and a range of interdisciplinary perspectives on the Njáls saga manuscripts Many of the authors took part in the international research project The Variance of Njáls saga which was funded by the Icelandic Research Council from 2011-2013

The Chu Silk Manuscripts from Zidanku, Changsha (Hunan Province) Volume II Li Ling, 2025-01-22 This book is the second in a two volume monograph on the Zidanku Silk Manuscripts Looted in 1942 from the Warring States period Chu tomb at Zidanku Changsha the manuscripts date to the turn from the 4th to the 3rd centuries BCE and are the only pre Imperial Chinese manuscripts on silk found to date The monograph represents the culmination of almost four decades of research by Professor Li Ling of Peking University Volume One addresses the circumstances of the discovery of the Zidanku Silk Manuscripts and the subsequent provenance history in China and the United States Volume Two provides the first complete transcription of the Zidanku Silk Manuscripts in their entirety together with reproductions of the original manuscripts The transcription is accompanied by comprehensive annotations with full paleographic and philological analysis of the texts An English translation of the texts has been added by Professor Donald Harper For the first time the Zidanku Silk Manuscripts can be read as a single corpus constituting a unique source of information that complements and goes beyond what is known from transmitted texts The Zidanku Silk Manuscripts reveal a range of cosmological and religious ideas and shed new light on the formation of correlative thought in the Warring States period This volume represents the continuation of the important study that Professor Li Ling devoted to the history of the discovery of the Chu manuscripts from Zidanku. It includes the photographic reproduction, transcription, and detailed study of three manuscripts and several fragments identified thanks to the efforts spanning more than four decades by the greatest expert on hemerological texts of the Warring States period, Marianne Bujard, Professor cole Pratique des Hautes tudes Paris. This beautifully produced volume, with full color plates of all the manuscript fragments, does vivid justice to the meticulous, painstaking, and rigorous decades of masterful work that Li Ling, the world's foremost authority on the subject, has poured into the reconstruction, decipherment, and interpretation of these important textual artifacts, much of which is brought to light here for the first time.

Scott Cook Tan Chin Tuan, Professor of Chinese Studies, National University of Singapore: The collaboration of the two most eminent experts of Chinese paleography, Li Ling in Beijing and Donald Harper in Chicago, is again a felicitous demonstration of what Sino-American cooperation can achieve.

Lothar Ledderose, Senior Professor, Institute of East Asian Art History, Heidelberg University: This volume compiles and assesses with immaculate accuracy and critical acumen all extant relevant material that Li Ling uncovered during his over forty year pursuit for answers in and out of China, among archaeologists, historians, paleographers, and conservation scientists, a true model of interdisciplinary and international research and an inspiration to all scholars in early China studies.

Jenny F. So, Senior Curator for Early Chinese Art, 1990-2000, National Museums of Asian Art, Smithsonian Institution: Professor Li Ling's splendid book offers to the Western public the first ever comprehensive monograph on the Chu Silk Manuscripts from Zidanku. This masterful research, to which he has devoted more than forty years, is not only a minute investigation, the most extensive of its kind, on the famous manuscripts, but also a very valuable contribution to our understanding of the intellectual life of the Late Warring States period.

Alain Thote, Emeritus Professor cole Pratique des Hautes tudes Paris: Complemented by high quality color pictures, old photographs, hand facsimiles of the manuscripts, as well as an updated bibliography and a comprehensive index of the ancient graphs, this English edition should undoubtedly be regarded as the new reference edition for these excavated texts.
