Red Sorghum:

New York Magazine, 1993-05-03 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Red Sorghum Mo Yan, 1994-04-01 The acclaimed novel of love and resistance during late 1930s China by Mo Yan winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature Spanning three generations this novel of family and myth is told through a series of flashbacks that depict events of staggering horror set against a landscape of gemlike beauty as the Chinese battle both Japanese invaders and each other in the turbulent 1930s A legend in China where it won major literary awards and inspired an Oscar nominated film directed by Zhang Yimou Red Sorghum is a book in which fable and history collide to produce fiction that is entirely new and unforgettable

Zhang Yimou Frances K. Gateward, 2001 Eleven years of interviews with the acclaimed Chinese film director of such movies as Red Sorghum Shanghai Triad and Not One Less

New Chinese Cinemas Nick Browne, 1994 New Chinese Cinemas analyses the changing forms and significance of filmmaking in the People's Republic of China Taiwan and Hong Kong since the end of the Cultural Revolution with a particular emphasis on how film comments on the profound social changes that have occurred in East Asia over the past two decades Considering in detail both conservative and progressive stances on economic modernisation it also demonstrates how film has been an important formal structure and social document in the interpretation of these changes The essays collected here which were specially commissioned for this volume also offer extended analyses of the important trends styles and work that define Chinese filmmaking in the 1980s

Sorghum C. Wayne Smith, Richard A. Frederiksen, 2000-12-25 The newest addition to the Wiley Series in Crop Science this book is an all in one guide to sorghum one of the eight major grain crops grown worldwide While presenting information in adequate detail for scientists it is also an invaluable reference for growers processors and grain merchants

Politics, Ideology, and Literary Discourse in Modern China Kang Liu, Xiaobing Tang, 1993-11-16 This collection of essays addresses the perception that our understanding of modern China will be enhanced by opening the literature of China to more rigorous theoretical and comparative study In doing so the book confronts the problematic and complex subject of China's literary theoretical and cultural responses to the experience of the modern With chapters by writers scholars and critics from mainland China Hong Kong and the United States this volume explores the complexity of representing modernity within the Chinese context Addressing the problem of finding a proper language for articulating fundamental issues in the historical experience of twentieth century China the authors critically re-examine notions of realism the self subject and modernity and draw on perspectives from feminist criticism ideological analysis and postmodern theory Among the many topics explored are subjectivity in Chinese cultural theory Chinese gender relations the viability of a Lacanian approach to Chinese identity the politics of subversion in Chinese reportage and the ambivalent status of the icon of paternity since Mao At the same time this book offers a probing look into the transformation that Chinese culture as well as the study of that culture is currently undergoing it also reconfirms private discourse as an ideal site for an investigation into a real and imaginary private and collective encounter with history Contributors Liu Kang Xiaobing Tang Liu Zaifu Stephen Chan Lydia H Liu Wendy Larson Theodore Hutters David Wang Tonglin Lu Yingjin Zhang Yuejin Wang Li Tuo Leo Ou fan Lee Dyes and Tannins Paulos Cornelis Maria Jansen, 2005 Remapping the Past Howard Yuen Fung Choy, 2008 This study investigates how writers of Deng Xiaoping's China undermined the grand narrative of official history by rewriting the past It showcases fictions of history by eleven Chinese Muslim and Tibetan authors in terms of spatial schemes of fictional historiography A Subversive Voice in China Shelley W. Chan, 2010 Thailand's Feed and Livestock Industry to the Year 2000 Sara J. Schwartz, 1990 Masculinity Besieged? Xueping Zhong, 2000 A feminist psychoanalytic account of changing conceptions of men and masculinity as seen in recent Chinese literature China in the Mix Ying Xiao, 2017-08-09 Scarce attention has been paid to the dimension of sound and its essential role in constructing image culture and identity in Chinese film and media China in the Mix fills a critical void with the first book on the sound languages scenery media and culture in post Socialist China In this study Ying Xiao explores fascinating topics including appropriations of popular folklore in the Chinese new wave of the 1980s Chinese rock n roll and youth cinema in fin de siècle China the political economic impact of free market imperatives and Hollywood pictures on Chinese film industry and filmmaking in the late twentieth century the reception and adaptation of hip hop and the emerging role of Internet popular culture and social media in the early twenty first century Xiao examines the articulations and representations of mass culture and everyday life concentrating on their aural oral manifestations in contemporary Chinese cinema and in a wide spectrum of media and cultural productions China in the Mix offers the first comprehensive investigation of Chinese film expressions and culture from a unique cohesive acoustic angle and through the prism of global media cultural exchange It shows how the complex evolving uses of sound popular music voice over silence noise and audio mixing in film and media reflect and engage the important cultural and socio historical shifts in contemporary China and in the increasingly networked world Xiao offers an innovative new conception of Chinese film and media and their audiovisual registers in the historiographical frame of China amid the global landscape

A History of Contemporary Chinese Literature Zicheng Hong, 2007-10-15 This groundbreaking book by the eminent Peking University professor Hong Zicheng covers the literary scene in China during the 1949-1999 period primarily focusing on fiction poetry drama and prose writing Reprinted sixteen times since its publication in the PRC in 1999 it is now available in English translation at last The first section of the book deals with the 1949-1976 period Often derided and ignored as an arid era for literature by both Chinese and overseas critics Professor Hong describes the literature that was popular and officially acceptable at the time and the cultural policies and political campaigns that shaped the tastes of readers and the literary creativity of writers during the period This part of the book is remarkable for Professor Hong's candidness and open mindedness qualities that would have made this text difficult to publish at an earlier date in China Furthermore the platform that the first part of the text provides renders the second part even more understandable to readers unfamiliar with the post 1976 literary scene and offers new insights to those who are familiar with it demonstrating as it does the close links between the two distinctive eras These links are provided by the resumption of literary traditions that had been more or less abandoned during the preceding ten year period as well as reactions against literature nurtured and guided by the state cultural apparatus The second part of the book consists of a comprehensive description of developments and insightful explanations of those developments in the literary arts and literary criticism since 1976 A unique and much needed accomplishment in contemporary literary studies Also available in paperback

The Subject in Crisis in Contemporary Chinese Literature Rong Cai, 2004-05-31 Post Mao China produced two parallel discourses on the human subject in the New Era 1976-1989 One was an autonomous Enlightenment humanist self aimed at replacing the revolutionary paragon that had dominated under Mao The other was a more problematic subject suffering from either a symbolic physical deformity or some kind of spiritual paralysis that undermines its apparent normalcy How do we explain the stubborn presence in the literature of the 1980s and 1990s of this crippled agent who fails to realize the humanist autonomy envisioned by post Mao theorists What are the anxieties and tensions embedded in this incongruity and what do they reveal This illuminating and original critical study of the crippled subject in post Mao literature offers a detailed textual analysis of the work of five well known contemporary writers Han Shaogong Can Xue Yu Hua Mo Yan and Jia Pingwa The author investigates not only the literary characters within the texts but also their creators real subjects in history Chinese writers whose own agency was being tested and established in the search for a new subjectivity She argues that reenacting the Maoist legacy the literary search failed to provide a viable model for a postrevolutionary China In addition the deficiency and inadequacy of the subject cannot always be contained in the Communist past a history to be transcended in the design of modernity after Mao The representation of the problematic subject thus punctured post Mao optimism and foreshadowed the eventual abandonment of the move to rethink subjectivity in the 1990s By diving beneath the euphoria of the 1980s and the confusion and frustration of the 1990s these critical readings offer a unique perspective with which to gauge the complexity of China's quest for modernity and a fuller understanding of the self's multifaceted experience in the post Mao era

On a Sustainable Future of the Earth's Natural Resources Mu. Ramkumar, 2013-03-21 On a Sustainable Future of the Earth's Natural Resources is divided into three sections with individual chapters contributed by experts on different facets of the earth sciences natural resources management and related issues The first section focuses on the status of Earth's resources land water biota and atmosphere Reviews on the rate of exploitation and the need to conserve these resources for future sustenance are also covered in this section The following section includes chapters elucidating environmental ecological climatological and anthropological pressures on sustained nourishment with the Earth s resources The last section describes management practices issues and perspectives on sociological legal administrative ICT and strategic efforts that need to be implemented in order to sustain our natural resources This book covers a broad spectrum of the Earth s resources and sustenance offering a comprehensive perspective on their past present and future Primitive Passions Rey Chow,1995 On Chinese cinema

Plant Specialized Metabolites Jean-Michel Mérillon,Kishan Gopal Ramawat,2025-04-29 This book offers a comprehensive and authoritative review of the biological and ecological roles played by specialized metabolites secondary metabolites in the life cycle of plants and it also covers the latest biotechnological advances in metabolite production and various industrial applications Divided into three parts the book starts with an outline of the diverse biological effects of specialized metabolites on plant microbe and plant insect interactions soil health reproduction and human welfare In this first part readers will find topics such as the Importance of Plant Secondary Metabolites in modern therapy melatonin and inflammatory and immune modulated diseases antimicrobial and antiprotozoal potential of specialized metabolites the use of plant specialized metabolites in aromatherapy the role of tannins in cardiovascular diseases a pharmacological perspective on isoflavones and noncommunicable diseases algal secondary metabolites and plant specialized metabolites used as aphrodisiacs In Part II chapters present an overview of the ecological roles played by plant specialized metabolites in pollination plant defence agriculture and weed management among others In the third and final part of this book readers will discover the latest biotechnological approaches for bioactive compound production and identification including the discovery of bioactive specialized metabolites based on metabolomic approaches and a perspective on the industrial applications of plant specialized metabolites Given its breadth this book is of interest to botanists biotechnologists phytochemists industrialists environmentalists biologists and all those involved in the production and use of secondary specialized metabolites Ideology, Power, Text Yi-tsi Mei Feuerwerker,1998-10-01 The division between the scholar gentry class and the people was an enduring theme of the traditional Chinese agrarian bureaucratic state Twentieth century elites recast this as a division between intellectuals and peasants and made the confrontation between the writing intellectual self and the peasant other a central concern of literature The author argues that in the process they created the peasantry the downtrodden rural masses represented as proper objects of political action and shifting ideological agendas Throughout this transition language or discourse has been not only a weapon of struggle but the center of controversy and contention Because of this primacy of language the author s main approach is the close reading or rather re reading of significant narrative fictions from four literary generations to demonstrate how historical ideological and cultural issues are absorbed articulated and debated within the text Three chapters each focus on one representative author The fiction of Lu Xun 1881 1936 which initiated the literary preoccupation with the victimized peasant is also about the identity crisis of the intellectual

Zhao Shuli 1906 1970 upheld by the Communist Party as a model peasant writer tragically exemplifies in his career the inherent contradictions of such an assigned role In the post Mao era Gao Xiaosheng 1928 uses the ironic play of language to present a more ambiguous peasant while deflating intellectual pretensions The chapter on the last of the four generations examines several texts by Mo Yan 1956 Han Shaogong 1952 and Wang Anyi 1954 as examples of root searching fiction from the mid 1980 s While reaching back into the past this fiction is paradoxically also experimental in technique the encounter with the peasant leads to questions about the self construction of the intellectual and the nature of narrative representation itself Throughout the focus is on texts in which some sort of representation or stand in of the writer intellectual self is present as character as witness as center of consciousness or as first person or obtrusive narrator Each story catches the writer in a self reflective mode the confrontation with the peasant other providing a theater for acting out varying dramas of identity power ideology political engagement and self representation
