Regional Economic Development David Barkin, Timothy King, 1970-10-02 Economic research into regional planning in Mexico and the promotion of the economic development of developing areas by integrated river basin investment projects examines political aspects industrialization annual growth rate of gross national product population trends covers agricultural production and animal production the development of natural resources and includes an evaluation of government policies and a case study of the tepalcatepec project Maps references and statistical tables Selected Water Resources Abstracts, 1974 Selected Water Resources Abstracts, 1974 Decentralized Development in Latin

America Paul Lindert, Otto Verkoren, 2010-03-02 Much of the scholarly and professional literature on development focuses either on the macro level of national policies and politics or on the micro level of development projects and household or community socio economic dynamics By contrast this collection pitches itself at the meso level with a comparative exploration of the ways in which local institutions municipalities local governments city authorities civil society networks and others have demanded and taken on a greater role in planning and managing development in the Latin American region The book's rich empirical studies reveal that local institutions have engaged upwards with central authorities to shape their policy and resource environments and in turn been pressured from below by local actors contesting the ways in which the structures and processes of local governance are framed The examples covered in this volume range from global cities such as Mexico and Santiago to remote rural areas of the Bolivian and Brazilian Amazon As a result the book provides a deep understanding of the diversity and complexity of local governance and local development in Latin America while avoiding the stereotyped claims about the impact of globalisation or the potential benefits of decentralisation as frequently stated in less empirically grounded analysis Process Management Maria Pomffyova, 2010-04-01 The content of the book has been structured into four technical research sections with total of 18 chapters written by well recognized researchers worldwide These sections are 1 process and performance management and their measurement methods 2 management of manufacturing processes with the aim to be quickly adaptable after real situation demands and their control 3 quality management information and communication systems their integration and risk management 4 management processes of healthcare and water construction and demolition waste problems and integration of environmental processes into management decisions The Lords of Tetzaco Bradley Benton, 2017-05-02 The book examines how the indigenous nobility of Tetzaco navigated the tumult of Spanish conquest and early colonialism Peopling for Profit in Imperial Brazil

José Juan Pérez Meléndez, 2024-09-25 Peopling for Profit provides a comprehensive history of migration to nineteenth century imperial Brazil Rather than focus on Brazilian slavery or the mass immigration of the end of the century José Juan Pérez Meléndez examines the orchestrated efforts of migrant recruitment transport to and settlement in post independence Brazil The book explores Brazil's connections to global colonization drives and migratory movements unveiling how the Brazilian Empire's engagement with privately run colonization models from overseas crucially informed the domestic sphere. It further reveals that the rise of a for-profit colonization model indelibly shaped Brazilian peopling processes and governance by creating a feedback loop between migration management and government formation. Pérez Meléndez sheds new light on how directed migrations and the business of colonization shaped Brazilian demography as well as enduring social racial and class inequalities. Black Saint of the Americas Celia Cussen, 2014-10-13 In May 1962 as the struggle for civil rights heated up in the United States and leaders of the Catholic Church prepared to meet for Vatican Council II Pope John XXIII named the first black saint of the Americas the Peruvian Martín de Porres 1579-1639 and designated him the patron of racial justice. The son of a Spanish father and a former slave woman from Panamá Martín served a lifetime as the barber and nurse at the great Dominican monastery in Lima. This book draws on visual representations of Martín and the testimony of his contemporaries to produce the first biography of this pious and industrious black man from the cosmopolitan capital of the Viceroyalty of Peru. The book vividly chronicles the evolving interpretations of his legend and his miracles and traces the centuries-long campaign to formally proclaim Martín de Porres a hero of universal Catholicism. Latin America's Radical Left Aldo Marchesi, 2018 This book examines a generation of leftist militants who in the 1960s advocated revolutionary violence for social change in South America. Letters and People of the Spanish Indies James Lockhart, Enrique Otte, 1976-03-26 This volume presents a selection of translated public and private letters written by Spanish officials, merchants and ordinary settlers aiming to illuminate the panorama of sixteenth-century Spanish American settler society and its genres of correspondence. Letters written by Native Americans a few of whom at this time were beginning to practice European style letter writing are also included. It is hoped that readers will feel the colorful humanity of the letter writers and also see the wide array of social types and functions during this era in the United States Southwest.
