Regret The Persistence Of The Possible:

Regret Janet Landman, 1993 Drawing from psychology economics philosophy anthropology and classic works of literature Landman provides an insightful anatomy of regret what it is how you experience it and how it changes you At best regret is a dynamic changing process one can transcend regret and thus transform the self Regret Janet Landman, 2023 Examines the experience of regret from a variety of sources ranging from psychology economics and philosophy to classic works of literature The author examines four views of regret the Romantic the Tragic the Comic and the Ironic as exemplified in such novels as Great Expectations Regret Paddy McQueen, 2024 Philosopher Paddy McQueen provides a detailed examination of the nature of regret and its role in decision making Additionally he explores how experiences of regret are shaped by social discourses especially those about gender and parenthood The Moral Psychology of Regret Anna Gotlib, 2019-10-21 What kind of an emotion is regret What difference does it make whether how and why we experience it and how does this experience shape our current and future thoughts decisions goals Under what conditions is regret appropriate Is it always one kind of experience or does it vary based on who is doing the regretting and why How is regret different from other backward looking emotions In The Moral Psychology of Regret scholars from several disciplines including philosophy gender studies disability studies law and neuroscience come together to address these and other questions related to this ubiquitous emotion that so many of us seem to dread And while regret has been somewhat under theorized as a subject worthy of serious and careful attention this volume is offered with the intent of expanding the discourse on regret as an emotion of great moral significance that underwrites how we understand ourselves and each other

Regretting Motherhood Orna Donath, 2017-07-11 A provocative and deeply important study of women's lives women's choices and an unspoken taboo that questions the societal pressures forcing women into motherhood Women who opt not to be mothers are frequently warned that they will regret their decision later in life yet we rarely talk about the possibility that the opposite might also be true that women who have children might regret it Drawing on years of research interviewing women from a variety of socioeconomic educational and professional backgrounds sociologist Orna Donath treats regret as a feminist issue as regret marks the road not taken we need to consider whether alternative paths for women currently are blocked off She asks that we pay attention to what is forbidden by rules governing motherhood time and emotion including the cultural assumption that motherhood is a natural role for women for the sake of all women not just those who regret becoming mothers If we are disturbed by the idea that a woman might regret becoming a mother Donath says our response should not be to silence and shame these women rather we need to ask honest and difficult questions about how society pushes women into motherhood and why those who reconsider it are still seen as a danger to the status quo Groundbreaking thoughtful and provocative this is an especially needed book in our current political climate as women's reproductive rights continue to be at the forefront of national debates Moral Engines Cheryl Mattingly, Rasmus Dyring, Maria Louw, Thomas

Schwarz Wentzer,2017-10-01 In the past fifteen years there has been a virtual explosion of anthropological literature arguing that morality should be considered central to human practice Out of this explosion new and invigorating conversations have emerged between anthropologists and philosophers Moral Engines Exploring the Ethical Drives in Human Life includes essays from some of the foremost voices in the anthropology of morality offering unique interdisciplinary conversations between anthropologists and philosophers about the moral engines of ethical life addressing the question What propels humans to act in light of ethical ideals Emotion Theory: The Routledge Comprehensive Guide Andrea

Scarantino,2024-07-23 Emotion Theory The Routledge Comprehensive Guide is the first interdisciplinary reference resource which authoritatively takes stock of the progress made both in the philosophy of emotions and in the affective sciences from Ancient Greece to today A two volume landmark publication it provides an overview of emotion theory unrivaled in terms of its comprehensiveness accessibility and systematicity Comprising 62 chapters by 101 leading emotion theorists in philosophy classics psychology biology psychiatry neuroscience and sociology the collection is organized as follows Volume I Part I History of Emotion Theory 10 chapters Part II Contemporary Theories of Emotions 10 chapters Part III The Elements of Emotion Theory 7 chapters Volume II Part IV Nature and Functions of 35 Specific Emotions 22 chapters Part V Major Challenges Facing Emotion Theory 13 chapters Special Elicitors of Emotions Emotions and Their Relations to Other Elements of Mental Architecture Emotions in Children Animals and Groups Normative Aspects of Emotions Most of the major themes of contemporary emotion theory are covered in their historical philosophical and scientific dimensions This collection will be essential reading for students and researchers in philosophy psychology neuroscience sociology anthropology political science and history for decades to come The Power of Regret Daniel H. Pink,2022-02-01 The world needs this book New York Times bestselling author Bren Brown An instant New York Times bestseller Named a Best Book of the Year by NPR and Financial Times From the 1 New York Times bestselling author of When and Drive a new book about the transforming power of our most misunderstood yet potentially most valuable emotion regret Everybody has regrets Daniel H Pink explains in The Power of Regret They re a universal and healthy part of being human And understanding how regret works can help us make smarter decisions perform better at work and school and bring greater meaning to our lives Drawing on research in social psychology neuroscience and biology Pink debunks the myth of the no regrets philosophy of life And using the largest sampling of American attitudes about regret ever conducted as well as his own World Regret Survey which has collected regrets from more than 15 000 people in 105 countries he lays out the four core regrets that each of us has These deep regrets offer compelling insights into how we live and how we can find a better path forward As he did in his bestsellers Drive When and A Whole New Mind Pink lays out a dynamic new way of thinking about regret and frames his ideas in ways that are clear accessible and pragmatic Packed with true stories of people s regrets as well as practical takeaways for reimagining regret as a positive force The Power of Regret shows how we can live richer more engaged lives Maternal

Regret: Resistances, Renunciations, and Reflections Andrea O'Reilly, 2022-06-08 This collection considers how maternal regret as it is conveyed in remorse resentment dissatisfaction and disappointment troubles the assumptions and mandates of normative motherhood and how it is explored and critiqued in creative non fiction film literature and social media Maternal regret is also examined in relation to the estrangement of mother and child and the remorse and grief felt by both mothers and children caused by the abandonment of mother or child Finally the collection explores how regret opens the space for maternal erudition enlightenment and evolution and makes possible maternal empowerment The book is organized by way of these three sections the first Resistances examines how maternal regret as conveyed in remorse disillusionment and resentment counters and corrects normative motherhood the second Renunciations looks at how regret is experienced in mother child abandonment and the third Reflections explores how regret may be an opportunity for maternal knowledge and power Overall the collection serves to debunk and destroy the final taboo of normative motherhood that of maternal regret Mothers voicing regret as journalist Kingston writes signals a large groundswell of maternal reckoning one that has been compared to the MeToo campaign

Existential and Spiritual Issues in Death Attitudes Adrian Tomer, Grafton Eliason, Paul T. P. Wong, 2008 In this new volume death is treated both as a threat to meaning and as an opportunity to create meaning
