
REINCARNATION AND JUDAISM

The entire world is a
Narrow bridge
But the main thing is
Not to fear
Rabbi Nachman of Breslov

The logo is a circular emblem with a brown border. Inside the circle, the Hebrew text "הכל העולם כלי גשר" (The entire world is a bridge) is written in a stylized font along the top arc, and "לפנינו" (Before us) is written along the bottom arc. In the center of the circle is an illustration of a narrow bridge with a red roof and two vertical supports, spanning a gap between two purple, mountain-like hills. Below the illustration, the English text "The entire world is a Narrow bridge But the main thing is Not to fear" is written in a cursive font, followed by the attribution "Rabbi Nachman of Breslov" in a smaller font.

Introduction Havdalah David Birnbaum, Martin S. Cohen, In its famous opening chapter the Hebrew Bible describes creation as consisting of twin acts of making and separating God creates light on the first day and then separates it from the darkness just as on the next day God creates the firmament and then sets it in place to separate the waters above from the waters below And so it follows at least in theory that when human beings seek to create through the medium of their own artistry creativity or industry and are obviously unable to mimic the uniquely divine act of creation ex nihilo they seek to do so through the one part of the process they can imitate separation Indeed the famous quip that the correct way to make a statue of a horse is to take a huge block of marble and then to chip away the parts that don t look like a horse is just an amusing way of suggesting the same idea namely that the human creative process involves the perception of something embedded within something else and then the subsequent liberation of that thing from its former setting so that it may exist on its own and in its own right

From Metaphysics to Midrash Shaul Magid, 2008-07-09 In From Metaphysics to Midrash Shaul Magid explores the exegetical tradition of Isaac Luria and his followers within the historical context in 16th century Safed a unique community that brought practitioners of Judaism Christianity and Islam into close contact with one another Luria s scripture became a theater in which kabbalists redrew boundaries of difference in areas of ethnicity gender and the human relation to the divine Magid investigates how cultural influences altered scriptural exegesis of Lurianic Kabbala in its philosophical hermeneutical and historical perspectives He suggests that Luria and his followers were far from cloistered They used their considerable skills to weigh in on important matters of the day offering at times some surprising solutions to perennial theological problems
