Reinventing A Continent Writing And Politics In South Africa 1982 1998:

Religion and Politics in South Africa Abdulkader Tayob, Wolfram Weisse, South Africa in the Global Imaginary Leon de Kock, Louise Bethlehem, Sonja Laden, 2021-11-15 This award winning collection of essays about culture and identity was written from the perspective of post apartheid South Africa Voted best special issue of 2001 by the Council of Editors of Learned Journal South African performance and archives of memory Yvette Hutchison, 2015-11-01 This book explores how South Africa is negotiating its past in and through various modes of performance in contemporary theatre public events and memorial spaces It analyses the Truth and Reconciliation Commission as a live event as an archive and in various theatrical engagements with it asking throughout how the TRC has affected the definition of identity and memory in contemporary South Africa including disavowed memories Hutchison then considers how the SA Mali Timbuktu Manuscript Project and the 2010 South African World Cup opening ceremony attempted to restage the nation in their own ways She investigates how the Voortrekker Monument and Freedom Park embody issues related to memory in contemporary South Africa She also analyses current renegotiations of popular repertoires particularly songs and dances related to the Struggle revivals of classic European and South African protest plays new history plays and specific racial and ethnic histories and identities The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study Imagination and the Contemporary Novel John J. Su, 2011-05-26 Imagination and the Contemporary Novel examines the global preoccupation with the imagination among literary authors with ties to former colonies of the British Empire since the 1960s John Su draws on a wide range of authors including Peter Ackroyd Monica Ali Julian Barnes Andr Brink J M Coetzee John Fowles Amitav Ghosh Nadine Gordimer Hanif Kureishi Salman Rushdie and Zadie Smith This study rehabilitates the category of imagination in order to understand a broad range of contemporary Anglophone literature The responses of such literature to shifts in global capitalism have often been misunderstood by the dominant categories of literary studies the postmodern and the postcolonial As both an insightful critique into the themes that drive a range of today s best novelists and a bold restatement of what the imagination is and what it means for contemporary culture this book breaks new ground in the study of twenty first century literature The

Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell, Dirk Kloppe, Craig MacKenzie, 2010

From the outset South Africa's history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines. From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party's policy of apartheid. Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life, South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering. Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990, South Africa has been a new nation in the making, inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence. South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele's call to rediscover the ordinary. The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored. An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history, this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice. Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages, English has remained the country's literary lingua franca. This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present. An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period. Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers. An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945.

Reinventing a Continent André Philippus Brink, 1998. Ranging in tone from dispassionate historical overview to bare knuckles polemic, these essays chronicle South Africa's willful transformation from repressive police state to emerging democracy.

Pre and Post-publication Itineraries of the Contemporary Novel in English François Gallix, 2007.

J.M. Coetzee and the Novel Patrick Hayes, 2010-08-12. This book argues that the significance of Coetzee's complex and finely nuanced fiction lies in the acuity with which it both explores and develops the tradition of the novel, ranging from Cervantes, Defoe, and Richardson to Dostoevsky, Kafka, and Beckett, as part of a sustained attempt to rethink the relationship between writing and politics.

South African Writers Paul A. Scanlon, 2000. Essays on South African writers from the South African War or Anglo-Boer War (1899-1902) to the Act of Union in 1910, when the defeated Boer republics were joined together by British Parliament into what became modern South Africa. Discusses the beginnings of South African literature in English as well as the impact the discovery of gold and diamonds had. Genres mentioned include travel books, hunter-adventure romances, and South African realist fiction.
