Relationships Living Things:

A Relationship Is a Living Thing Russell Crescimanno, 2009-04 Many marital relationships that dissolve could survive and even thrive if the couple realized that there is an art and science to love and intimacy and were willing to learn and practice it This involves learning how to experience the difference between our ego and our Self Quieting the mind through meditation using methods both traditional and home made is the key to this experience It is the felt sense of the deep Self within that moves us to choose to be kind or considerate when our egos would have us behave otherwise When we extend ourselves in friendship a genuine fondness for one another begins to grow which then nurtures the soul of our relationship Cultivating these qualities promotes deep spiritual partnership and long term intimacy This book offers both principles and practices for those who feel they may be ready to engage this kind of soul centered learning Russell Crescimanno Ph D is Professor Emeritus at Piedmont Virginia Community College He has been teaching courses in sociology for forty years One in particular called Marriage and Family Relations became his passion as both his personal life and the climate of the culture regarding marriage and divorce changed over time He has also been a student and practitioner of the science of meditation and Self realization for twenty years This work has complemented his specialization in the sociology of knowledge and his desire to understand how society shapes human consciousness and therefore our relationships Motivated by the growing divorce rate in the country the painful stories of so many students who come from broken homes and the dissolution of his first two marriages he has been increasingly invested in learning what it takes to keep love alive and what we now know is sure to deaden it Symbiotic Relationships: Animals and Plants Working Together Emma Huddleston, 2019-12-15 Some plants and animals could not survive without a close relationship with another living thing Symbiotic Relationships Animals and Plants Working Together looks at the amazing relationships between living things as well as the threats they face and how people can protect them Easy to read text vivid images and helpful back matter give readers a clear look at this subject Features include a table of contents infographics a glossary additional resources and an index Aligned to Common Core Standards and correlated to state standards Core Library is an imprint of Abdo Publishing a division of ABDO Bridges: Interactions of Living Things Laura McDonald, 2010 A look at how living things interact and transfer energy in different ecosystems Relationships of Living Things: Relationships of living things [text] Mary Atwater, 1993 Hope for Common Ground Julie Hanlon Rubio, 2016-05-02 In this learned but accessible work for scholars students religious and lay readers ethicist Julie Hanlon Rubio investigates how Catholics divided by partisan rancor can better solve problems and understand one another Julie Hanlon Rubio persuasively argues that Catholics of differing commitments can carve out space for common action and un The Routledge Handbook of International Law and Anthropocentrism Vincent Chapaux, Frédéric Mégret, Usha Natarajan, 2023-06-15 This handbook explores contextualises and critiques the relationship between anthropocentrism the idea that human beings are socially and politically at the centre of the cosmos and international law While the critical study of anthropocentrism has been under way for several years it has either focused on specific subfields of international law or emanated from two distinctive strands inspired by the animal rights movement and deep ecology This handbook offers a broader study of anthropocentrism in international law as a global legal system and academic field It assesses the extent to which current international law is anthropocentric contextualises that claim in relation to broader critical theories of anthropocentrism and explores alternative ways for international law to organise relations between humans and other living and non living entities This book will interest international lawyers environmental lawyers legal theorists social theorists and those concerned with the philosophy and ethics of ecology and the non human realms Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Funded by University of
