More than news

Show all students why social studies matters.

Static, one-sided textbooks reduce engagement, leading many students to dismiss social studies as something focused on the past and not relevant to their lives. By making social studies more dynamic, we have an opportunity to engage students in the subject. With this in mind, we pinpointed 4 areas to focus on when planning your social studies content.

DYNAMIC AND DIVERSE SOURCES

Prioritize a range of engaging and representative instructional materials that connect the past to the present.

SKILLS DEVELOPMENT

Provide opportunities for students to develop literacy and social-emotional skills, like self-awareness and social-awareness, to navigate conversations about complex topics.

Culturally Relevant Pedagogy Gloria Ladson-Billings, 2021 For the first time this volume provides a definitive collection of Gloria Ladson-Billings's groundbreaking concept of Culturally Relevant Pedagogy (CRP) After repeatedly confronting deficit perspectives that asked "What's wrong with those kids" Ladson-Billings decided to ask a different question one that fundamentally shifted the way we think about teaching and learning Noting that those kids usually meant Black students she posed a new question "What is right with Black students and what happens in classrooms where teachers, parents, and students get it right" This compilation of Ladson-Billings's published work on Culturally Relevant Pedagogy examines the theory how it works in specific subject areas and its role in teacher education The final section looks toward the future including what it means to re-mix CRP with elements of youth culture such as hip-hop This one-of-a-kind collection can be used as an introduction to CRP and as a retrospective of the idea as it evolved over time helping a new generation to see the possibilities that exist in teaching and learning for all students
