Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance. Subcommittee on Public Assistance,1978 Economics of Faith Esther Chung-Kim,2021-04-02 Economics of Faith addresses the multiple ways that leaders of the European Reformation sought to inspire new attitudes toward poverty and wealth to reform the institutions of poor relief and to create new organizations for aiding religious refugees Guided by biblical ideals and values religious reformers became some of the major contributors in the effort to address poverty one of the most vexing social problem in early modern Europe By examining the connections between religion politics and community it highlights the crucial role that religion had in the promotion of social responsibility and the development of social welfare systems Poverty and Deviance in Early Modern Europe Robert Jütte,1994-03-31 This study provides an accessible and authoritative account of poverty and deviance during the early modern period informed by those perspectives on the role of the poor themselves in the provision of welfare services characteristic of much recent social history Robert J tte shows how the notions of poverty and social deviance that preoccupied much contemporary thought saw their ultimate fruition in the systematic programmes for social welfare that emerged during the nineteenth century Contrary to the once traditional historical emphasis on the ameliorative role of individual reformers Professor J tte s account looks much more closely at the poor themselves and the complex network of social and communal relationships they inhabited He examines the lives not only of poor relief recipients but of the vast number of destitute individuals who had to find other means to stay alive and how these people shaped their own patterns of survival within given communities Lutheran Reformation and the Law ,2022-01-04 The volume provides new evidence of how the legal ideas of the Lutheran Reformation were put into practice especially in the Nordic countries and how they worked in the history of law Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden forming the largest Lutheran area in the
