Religion And Devotion In Europe C1215 C 1515:

Religion and Devotion in Europe, C.1215- C.1515 Robert Norman Swanson,1995-06-29 Underlying the discussion are basic questions about the format of medieval religious experience ranging from the nature of authority to the relationship between priests and laity and how far it is actually possible to talk of a monolithic catholicism Religion and Devotion in Europe, c.1215- c.1515 Robert N. Swanson,1995-06-29 This is the first one volume survey in English of religion and devotion in Europe between 1215 and 1515 Intended primarily as a student textbook it provides essential background for a proper appreciation of medieval Western society Avoiding the history of institutional structures the book concentrates on the spirituality that the medieval Church sought to promulgate and control Its thematic structure provides accessible surveys of major themes and addresses recent debates about key aspects of medieval Catholicism Parish Churches in the Early

Modern World Andrew Spicer,2016-12-05 Across Europe the parish church has stood for centuries at the centre of local communities it was the focal point of its religious life the rituals performed there marked the stages of life from the cradle to the grave Nonetheless the church itself artistically and architecturally stood apart from the parish community It was often the largest and only stone built building in a village it was legally distinct being subject to canon law as well as consecrated for the celebration of religious rites The buildings associated with the cure of souls were sacred sites or holy places where humanity interacted with the divine In spite of the importance of the parish church these buildings have generally not received the same attention from historians as non parochial places of worship This collection of essays redresses this balance and reflects on the parish church across a number of confessions Catholic Lutheran Reformed and Anti Trinitarian during the early modern period Rather than providing a series of case studies of individual buildings each essay looks at the evolution of parish churches in response to religious reform as well as confessional change and upheaval They examine aspects of their design and construction furnishings and material culture liturgy and the use of the parish church While these essays range widely across Europe the volume also considers how religious provision and the parish church were translated into a global context with colonial and commercial expansion in the Americas and Asia This interdisciplinary volume seeks to identify what was distinctive about the parish church for the congregations that gathered in them for worship and for communities across the early modern world Pepysian Meditations on the Passion of Christ Mayumi Taguchi,Yoko

Iyeiri,2019-05-07 The Middle English prose Pepysian Meditations on the Passion of Christ PMPC survives uniquely in Cambridge Magdalene College MS Pepys 2125 and has not previously been published It is one of several Middle English translations of the Passion sequence of the pseudo Bonaventuran Latin Meditationes Vitae Christi MVC This part of the MVC circulated independently and in this form is known in modern scholarship as the Meditationes de Passione Christi MPC The editors argue that although the Middle English version in Pepys 2125 followed the model of the MPC it is probable that the translation derives directly from a recension of the MPC Although the translator handles the original with a degree of freedom the text is not indebted to other sources The Introduction includes an extensive description of the manuscript which is a late medieval devotional miscellany and a detailed account of the language of the PMPC It also addresses the textual tradition out of which the PMPC grew and the work of the translator The edited text is followed by a commentary glossary and bibliography

Everyday Objects Tara Hamling, Catherine Richardson, 2016-12-14 This book is about the objects people owned and how they used them Twenty three specially written essays investigate the type of things that might have been considered everyday objects in the medieval and early modern periods and how they help us to understand the daily lives of those individuals for whom few other types of evidence survive for instance people of lower status and women of all status groups Everyday Objects presents new research by specialists from a range of disciplines to assess what the study of material culture can contribute to our understanding of medieval and early modern societies Extending and developing key debates in the study of the everyday the chapters provide analysis of such things as ceramics illustrated manuscripts pins handbells carved chimneypieces clothing drinking vessels bagpipes paintings shoes religious icons and the built fabric of domestic houses and guild halls These things are examined in relation to central themes of pre modern history for instance gender identity space morality skill value ritual use belief public and private behaviour continental influence materiality emotion technical innovation status competition and social mobility This book offers both a collection of new research by a diverse range of specialists and a source book of current methodological approaches for the study of pre modern material culture The multi disciplinary analysis of these everyday objects by archaeologists art historians literary scholars historians conservators and museum practitioners provides a snapshot of current methodological approaches within the humanities Although analysis of material culture has become an increasingly important aspect of the study of the past previous research in this area has often remained confined to subject specific boundaries This book will therefore be an invaluable resource for researchers and students interested in learning about important new work which demonstrates the potential of material culture study to cut across traditional historiographies and disciplinary boundaries and access the lived experience of individuals in the past
