Religion And Law Biblical Judaic And Islamic Perspectives:

Religion and Law Edwin Brown Firmage, Bernard G. Weiss, John Woodland Welch, 1990 The papers presented in this volume were originally presented at a conference entitled Religion and Law Middle Eastern Influences on the West sponsored by the Middle East Center of the University of Utah and the J Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University The conference's aim was to explore the connection between religion especially biblical religion and law in the Ancient Middle East and to trace its development into the present The special status of Islamic law is treated in several articles

Judging in the Islamic, Jewish and Zoroastrian Legal Traditions Janos Jany, 2016-05-06 This book presents a comparative analysis of the judiciary in the Islamic Jewish and Zoroastrian legal systems It compares postulations of legal theory to legal practice in order to show that social practice can diverge significantly from religious and legal principles It thus provides a greater understanding of the real functions of religion in these legal systems regardless of the dogmatic positions of the religions themselves The judiciary is the focus of the study as it is the judge who is obliged to administer to legal texts while having to consider social realities being sometimes at variance with religious ethics and legal rules deriving from them This book fills a gap in the literature examining Islamic Jewish and Zoroastrian law and as such will open new possibilities for further studies in the field of comparative law It will be a valuable resource for those working in the areas of comparative law law and religion law and society and legal anthropology

Jewish Education and Learning Glenda Abramson, Tudor Parfitt, 2018-12-07 First published in 1994 This volume dedicated to Dr David Patterson founding President of the Oxford Centre for Postgraduate Hebrew Studies takes as its theme Jewish education and learning throughout the ages But it is the Academy interpreted here to mean an institution of Judaic scholarship which dominates this collection of essays For almost three thousand years centres of Jewish learning have flourished in many parts of the world This volume discusses these institutions from biblical times to the present From the time of the Mishnaic Academy at Yavneh established in the first century CE the academies were more than schools of higher religious education They incorporated rational analysis of the scriptures the natural sciences and other secular studies Some of the most celebrated academies such as those in Cairo and Tunisia and later in the Iberian Peninsula were of a very high intellectual order sometimes superior to the great Christian universities It was at these institutions that the great Jewish legal and literary works were written and completed This collection of essays has been written by outstanding scholars who have been associated with David Patterson and the Oxford Centre The essays explore the nature and function of the Jewish Academies in the broadest sense the leading personalities associated with them and their social cultural and moral effect on the Jewish communities of their day

Albert Pietersma Daniela Scialabba Craig A Evans James M Scott Martin G Abegg Jr and Wolfgang Kraus The Jewish Law Annual Volume 19 Berachyahu Lifshitz, Hanina Ben-Menahem, 2013-07-04 Volume 19 of The Jewish Law Annual is a festschrift in honor of Professor Neil S Hecht It contains thirteen articles ten in English and three in Hebrew Several articles are jurisprudential in nature focusing on analysis of halakhic institutions and concepts Elisha Ancselovits discusses the concept of the prosbul asking whether it is correct to construe it as a legal fiction as several scholars have asserted He takes issue with this characterization of the prosbul and with other scholarly readings of Tannaitic law in general The concepts of dignity and shame are addressed in two very different articles one by Nahum Rakover and the other by Hanina Ben Menahem The former discusses halakhic sources pertaining to the dignity inherent in human existence and the importance of nurturing it The latter presents a fascinating survey of actual legal practices that contravened this halakhic norm Attestations of these practices are adduced not only from halakhic and semi halakhic documents but also from literary historical and ethnographic sources Three articles tackle topical issues of considerable contemporary interest Bernard S Jackson comments on legal issues relating to the concept of conversion arising from the story of the biblical heroine Ruth and compares that concept to the notion of conversion invoked by a recent English court decision on eligibility for admission to denominational schools An article by Dov I Frimer explores the much agonized over question of halakhic remedies for the wife whose husband refuses to grant her a get bill of divorce precluding her remarriage Frimer's focus is the feasibility of inducing the husband to grant the get through monetary pressure specifically by awarding the chained wife compensatory tort damages Tort remedies are also discussed in the third topical article by Ronnie Warburg on negligent misrepresentation by investment advisors Two papers focus on theory of law Shai Wozner explores the decision rules conduct rules dichotomy in the Jewish law context clarifying how analysis of which category a given law falls under enhances our understanding of the law's intent Daniel Sinclair explores the doctrine of normative transparency in the writings of Maimonides the Hatam Sofer and R Abraham Isaac Kook demonstrating that although transparency was universally endorsed as an ideal some rabbinical authorities were willing to forego transparency where maintenance of the halakhic system itself was imperiled An article by Alfredo M Rabello reviews the primary and secondary literature on end of life issues and contextualizes the much discussed talmudic passage bAvoda Zara 18a And an article by Chaim Saiman offers a critical survey of the main approaches to conceptualizing and teaching Jewish law in American universities it also makes suggestions for new and perhaps more illuminating pedagogic direction In the Hebrew section an intriguing article by Berachyahu Lifshitz presents a comparison of Persian and talmudic law on the status of promises and the role of the divine in their enforcement Yuval Sinai discusses the halakhic law of evidence particularly the well known two witnesses requirement and departures from it The volume closes with a historical article by Elimelech Westreich on the official rabbinical court in nineteenth century Jerusalem It focuses on the rabbinical figures who served on the court the communities for whom it adjudicated and its role in the broader

geopolitical and sociocultural context Holiness Hannah K. Harrington, 2002-08-26 An in depth exploration of holiness in the context of rabbinic Judaism providing a much needed comparative view during a key period in the development of the Jewish religion Inventing God's Law David P. Wright, 2009-09-03 Most scholars believe that the numerous similarities between the Covenant Code Exodus 20 23 23 19 and Mesopotamian law collections especially the Laws of Hammurabi which date to around 1750 BCE are due to oral tradition that extended from the second to the first millennium This book offers a fundamentally new understanding of the Covenant Code arguing that it depends directly and primarily upon the Laws of Hammurabi and that the use of this source text occurred during the Neo Assyrian period sometime between 740 640 BCE when Mesopotamia exerted strong and continuous political and cultural influence over the kingdoms of Israel and Judah and a time when the Laws of Hammurabi were actively copied in Mesopotamia as a literary canonical text The study offers significant new evidence demonstrating that a model of literary dependence is the only viable explanation for the work It further examines the compositional logic used in transforming the source text to produce the Covenant Code thus providing a commentary to the biblical composition from the new theoretical perspective This analysis shows that the Covenant Code is primarily a creative academic work rather than a repository of laws practiced by Israelites or Judeans over the course of their history The Covenant Code too is an ideological work which transformed a paradigmatic and prestigious legal text of Israel s and Judah s imperial overlords into a statement symbolically countering foreign hegemony The study goes further to study the relationship of the Covenant Code to the narrative of the book of Exodus and explores how this may relate to the development of the Pentateuch as a whole
