Rosenbach Abroad Leslie A. Morris, 1988 Collecting the Past Toby Burrows, Cynthia Johnston, 2018-10-03 Today's libraries and museums are heavily indebted to the passions and obsessions of numerous individual collectors who devoted their lives to amassing collections of books manuscripts artworks and other culturally significant objects Collecting the Past brings together the latest research on a wide range of significant British collectors from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries including Hans Sloane Sarah Sophia Banks Thomas Phillipps Sydney Cockerell J P Morgan Jr Alfred Chester Beatty and R E Hart Contributors to the volume examine the phenomenon of collecting in a variety of settings and across a range of different materials Considering the aims and motives that led these collectors to assemble such remarkable collections the book also examines the history of these collections after the collector's death Particular attention is given to the often complicated relationship between collectors and the public institutions that subsequently came to house their collections Situated within the framework of cultural collecting more generally this book offers an authoritative series of essays on key collectors Collecting the Past should be most interesting to researchers academics and postgraduate students engaged in the study of museum studies book history manuscript studies museum history library history and the history of collecting Professionals in libraries museums and galleries will also find the volume of great interest The Prose Brut and Other Late Medieval Chronicles Jaclyn Rajsic, Erik Kooper, Dominique T. Hoche, 2016 Essays on the medieval chronicle tradition shedding light on history writing manuscript studies and the history of the book and the post medieval reception of such texts The histories of chronicles composed in England during the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries and onwards with a focus on texts belonging to or engaging with the Prose Brut tradition are the focus of this volume The contributors examine the composition dissemination and reception of historical texts written in Anglo Norman Latin and English including the Prose Brut chronicle c 1300 and later Castleford's Chronicle c 1327 and Nicholas Trevet's Les Cronicles c 1334 looking at questions of the processes of writing rewriting printing and editing history They cross traditional boundaries of subject and period taking multi disciplinary approaches to their studies in order to underscore the shifting historical social and political contexts in which medieval English chronicles were used and read from the fourteenth century through to the present day As such the volume honours the pioneering work of the late Professor Lister M Matheson whose research in this area demonstrated that a full understanding of medieval historical literature demands attention to both the content of the works in question and to the material circumstances of producing those works JACLYN RAJSIC is a Lecturer in Medieval Literature in the School of English and Drama at Queen Mary University of London ERIK KOOPER taught Old and Middle English at Utrecht University until his retirement in 2007 DOMINIQUE HOCHÉ is an Associate Professor at West Liberty University in West Virginia Contributors Elizabeth J Bryan Caroline D Eckhardt A S G Edwards Dan Embree Alexander L Kaufman Edward Donald Kennedy Erik Kooper Julia Marvin William Marx Krista A Murchison Heather Pagan Jaclyn Rajsic Christine M Rose Neil
