Vitruvius was a Roman and wrote the oldest western book on design to have survived. It lays down the principle that places should have commodity, firmness and delight. Book 1, Chapters 1-7 are in the Encyclopedia. Excerpts from Ovid's Metamorphosis (18 AD) and Art of Love (1 BC). Ovid's poetry provided a rich source of imagery for garden designers and for the artists who made garden sculpture. Pliny the Younger's letters describing his own gardens (c100 AD). These letters are the best surviving descriptions of Roman gardens and of how their owners used them. Pliny owned many gardens and 500 slaves. Cicero excerpts from his letters relating to gardens. Virgil's Aeneid sections relating to gardens. Life of St Martin. The first outstanding monastic leader in France was St Martin of Tours (c316-397). His account of how he destroyed the sacred groves of the pagan religion does much to explain why Europe has such scanty remains of this type of outdoor space. Ibn Battuta's account of Constantinople (c1300). eTexts relating to Medieval Gardens. Charlemagne's chapter capitulary on gardens gave detailed instructions for the plants to be used in the royal gardens and for the management of his lands. They are key texts for the study of medieval gardens (c800 AD). A note on Irminsul, the sacred tree of the Saxons destroyed by the Christians. Guillaume de Lorris Romance of the Rose or Roman de la Rose (c1250). This is an allegorical poem inspired by Ovid in which gardens and roses are associated with romantic love. Full many a time I smote and struck the door and listened for someone to let me in. Excerpts from Boccaccio's Decameron (1353) with classical descriptions of medieval garden scenes. The tales are famed for their sexual intrigue and this aspect is more prominent than garden scenery in the illustrations in the Encyclopedia. Albertus Magnus advice on how to make a pleasure garden (1206). Walafried Strabbo's poem Hortulus. This is the literary classic of medieval garden literature celebrating the delight of plants in monastic life and giving detailed information on the culture and uses of plants. The Life of St Anthony relating to the origin of monastic gardening. The Life of St Philbert relating to the origin of the European monastic cloister. He was Abbot of Jumièges in France (c750). A set of quotations from The Bible which make reference to gardens (61). No eTexts relating to Islamic Gardens. A set of quotations from The Koran which make reference to gardens (151). No. The Spanish Ambassador's visit to Samarkand in 1404 with his descriptions of Mughal gardens. Babur's Memoir. Babur admired the gardens he had seen and after founding a Mughal Empire made gardens he made in India. Persian gardens were in better condition in 1900 than in 2000 and better still in 1700. This gives a particular importance to past travellers' descriptions of their use and form. There are sections from the following accounts of visits to Persian gardens in the Encyclopedia and engravings to capture the flavour of Persian gardens as they were. Montesquieu's Persian letters (1721) contained little information on Persian gardens but did much to awaken interest in seraglios and the romance of the East. Washington Irving, the father of American literature, published a famous account of the Alhambra in 1832. He was a friend of Sir Walter Scott and has the same interest in welding history with imagination. This provides a glimpse of the Alhambra and Generalife when they were beyond question the finest gardens in Europe. eTexts relating to Renaissance Gardens.
