AB Bookman's Weekly ,1998 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1895 A Social History of Amateur Music-Making and Scottish National Identity: Scotland's Printed Music, 1880-1951
Karen E. McAulay,2024-10-30 Late Victorian Scotland had a flourishing music publishing trade evidenced by the survival of a plethora of vocal scores and dance tune books and whether informing us what people actually sang and played at home danced to or enjoyed in choirs or reminding us of the impact of emigration from Britain for both emigrants and their families left behind examining this neglected repertoire provides an insight into Scottish musical culture and is a valuable addition to the broader social history of Scotland The decline of the music trade by the mid twentieth century is attributable to various factors some external but others due to the conservative and perhaps somewhat parochial nature of the publishers output What survives bears witness to the importance of domestic and amateur music making in ordinary lives between 1880 and 1950 Much of the music is now little more than a historical artefact Nonetheless Karen E McAulay shows that the nature of the music the song and fiddle tune books contents the paratext around the collections its packaging marketing and dissemination all document the social history of an era whose everyday music has often been dismissed as not significant or indeed properly old enough to merit consideration The book will be valuable for academics as well as folk musicians and those interested in the social and musical history of Scotland and the British Isles Monthly Bulletin St. Louis Public Library,1913 Teachers bulletin vol 4 issued as part of v 23 no 9 Monthly Bulletin.  Musical Times and Singing Class Circular ,1903 Vernacular Aesthetics in the Later Middle Ages Katharine W. Jager,2019-07-03 Vernacular Aesthetics in the Later Middle Ages explores the formal composition public performance and popular reception of vernacular poetry music and prose within late medieval French and English cultures This collection of essays considers the extra literary and extra textual methods by which vernacular forms and genres were obtained and examines the roles that performance and orality play in the reception and dissemination of those genres arguing that late medieval vernacular forms can be used to delineate the interests and perspectives of the subaltern Via an interdisciplinary approach contributors use theories of multimodality translation manuscript studies sound studies gender studies and activist New Formalism to address how and for whom popular vernacular medieval forms were made A Bibliography of Literature

Francis, Stephen G. Parker, 2025-09-01 In an age when churches seem to be struggling and new initiatives remain fragile cathedrals are displaying signs of resilience The field of cathedral studies has emerged to test the sustainability of this resilience This volume draws together the work of 19 individuals who are shaping the field of cathedral studies intent on describing what they see and keen to identify what could be Together they position cathedrals at the heart of Anglican ecclesiology and maintain that properly supported cathedrals serve as episcopal theological resource churches where sacred space and common ground collide Here faithful disciples can be nurtured and sustained and here the low threshold welcomes in the hungry crowds whom the disciples are called to feed and to nurture Insightful and thought provoking this book will be of interest to practitioners scholars and students of religious studies cathedral studies theology and sociology The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Beliefs Values Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
