Round The Clock Stories Rewards Series 5:

Enid Blyton: The Biography Barbara Stoney, 2011-08-26 Enid Blyton is known throughout the world for her imaginative children's books and her enduring characters such as Noddy and the Famous Five. She is one of the most borrowed authors from British libraries and still holds a fascination for readers old and young alike. Yet until 1974 when Barbara Stoney first published her official biography little was known about this most private author even by members of her own family. The woman who emerged from Barbara Stoney's remarkable research was hardworking, complex, often difficult and in many ways childlike. Now this widely praised classic biography has been fully updated for the twenty-first century and with the addition of new colour illustrations and a comprehensive list of Enid Blyton's writings documents the growing appeal of this extraordinary woman throughout the world. The fascinating story of one of the world's most famous authors will intrigue and delight all those with an interest in her timeless books. Getting to 50/50 Sharon Meers, Joanna Strober, 2013-09-10 Sharon Meers and Joanna Strober are professionals, wives and mothers. They understand the challenges and rewards of two career households. They also know that families thrive not in spite of working mothers but because of them. You can have a great career, a great marriage and be a great mother. The key is tapping into your best resource and most powerful ally: the man you married. After interviewing hundreds of parents and employers, surveying more than a thousand working mothers and combing through the latest government and social science research, the authors have discovered that kids, husbands and wives all reap huge benefits when couples commit to share equally as breadwinners and caregivers. Mothers work without guilt, fathers bond with their kids and children blossom with the attention of two involved parents. The starting point: An attitude shift that puts you on the road to 50/50 plus the positive step-by-step advice in this book. From baby boot camp for new dads to exactly what to say when negotiating a leave with the boss, this savvy book offers fresh ideas to today's families, offering encouragement, hope and confidence to any woman who has ever questioned her choices regarding work and family.
