Daniels, C. Tsuzuki, 2002-10-02 This pioneering collection of essays by Japanese British and Canadian scholars demonstrates how individuals government agencies and non governmental organizations have confirmed and challenged the ideas of diplomats and statesmen Case studies of mutual perceptions feminism ceremonial theatre economic and social thought fine arts broadcasting labour and missionary activity all illustrate how varieties of nationalism and internationalism have shaped the development of Anglo Japanese relations Furthermore it reveals the British admiration of Japan and a desire to emulate Japanese efficiency as a recurring theme in debates on the condition of Britain in the twentieth century Celebrating Moore Henry Moore, 1998 In celebration of the 100th anniversary of Henry Moore s birth this book features the most important and comprehensive single group of Moore s Drawings graphics and sculpture More than 300 of Moore s acclaimed works are reproduced along with fresh insights and personal anecdotes by colleagues 290 color illustrations Art Rethought Nicholas Wolterstorff, 2015-09-11 Human beings engage works of the arts in many different ways they sing songs while working they kiss icons they create and dedicate memorials Yet almost all philosophers of art of the modern period have ignored this variety and focused entirely on just one mode of engagement namely disinterested attention In the first part of the book Nicholas Wolterstorff asks why philosophers have concentrated on just this one mode of engagement The answer he proposes is that almost all philosophers have accepted what the author calls the grand narrative concerning art in the modern world It is generally agreed that in the early modern period members of the middle class in Western Europe increasingly engaged works of the arts as objects of disinterested attention The grand narrative claims that this change represented the arts coming into their own and that works of art so engaged are socially other and transcendent Wolterstorff argues that the grand narrative has to be rejected as not fitting the facts Wolterstorff then offers an alternative framework for thinking about the arts Central to the alternative framework that he proposes are the idea of the arts as social practices and the idea of works of the arts as having different meaning in different practices He goes on to use this framework to analyse in some detail five distinct social practices of art and the meaning that works have within those practices the practice of memorial art of art for veneration of social protest art of works songs and of recent art reflexive art Jacob Van Ruisdael Seymour Slive, 2001-01-01 If you know the 26 letters of the alphabet and can count to 99 or are just learning you ll love Tana Hoban s brilliant creation This innovative concept book is two books in one Art and Love in Renaissance Italy Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kimbell Art Museum, 2008 Many famous artworks of the Italian Renaissance were made to celebrate love marriage and family They were the pinnacles of a tradition
