Royal Ballet:

The Royal Ballet (formerly the Sadler's Wells Ballet) Royal Ballet, 1957* Dancers: Behind the Scenes with The Royal Ballet Andrej Uspenski, 2013-08-28 This beautifully produced new book by Royal Ballet dancer Andrej Uspenski is a collection of exclusive photographs which shines the spotlight on ballet the most beautiful of art forms These exquisite photographs feature some of the finest dancers on stage today bringing the reader into the magical world of ballet As a Royal Ballet dancer himself Andrej Uspenski has a unique perspective on photographic composition of dance imagery as well as unrivalled access not only to the Royal Ballet's productions but also to the dancers who perform in them This gives the reader an exclusive insight in to the Royal Ballet's work Dancers includes exclusive backstage photographs as well as a number of breathtaking images taken from the wings during live stage performances making this a unique photographic record perfect for all ballet fans The Royal Ballet: 75 Years Zoë Anderson, 2011-02-17 This book is a perceptive and critical account of the first 75 years of The Royal Ballet tracing the company's growth and its great cultural importance an indispensable book for all lovers of ballet In 1931 Ninette de Valois started a ballet company with just six dancers Within twenty years The Royal Ballet as it became was established as one of the world's great companies It has produced celebrated dancers from Margot Fonteyn to Darcey Bussell and one of the richest repertoires in ballet The company danced through the Blitz won an international reputation in a single New York performance and added to the glamour of London's Swinging Sixties It has established a distinctive English school of ballet a pure classical style that could do justice to the 19th century repertory and to new British classics Leading dance critic Zo Anderson vividly portrays the extraordinary personalities who created the company and the dancers who made such an impact on their audiences She looks at the bad times as well as the good examining the controversial directorships of Norman Morrice and Ross Stretton and the criticism fired at the company as the Royal Opera House closed for redevelopment The Royal Ballet Today Keith Money, 1969 The Royal Ballet Alexander Bland, 1981 The Royal Ballet, 1965 The Royal opera house Covent Garden Ltd presents the Royal ballet under the management of S Hurok director Frederick Ashton assistant directors John Field John Hart Michael Somes principal conductor John Lanchbery resident choreographer Kenneth MacMillan conductor Emanuel Young guest conductor Joseph Levine A World of Work Ilana M. Gershon, 2015-11-25 Ever wondered what it would be like to be a street magician in Paris A fish farmer in Norway A costume designer in Bollywood This playful and accessible look at different types of work around the world delivers a wealth of information and advice about a wide array of jobs and professions The value of this book is twofold For young people or middle aged people who are undecided about their career paths and feel constrained in their choices A World of Work offers an expansive vision For ethnographers this book offers an excellent example of using the practical details of everyday life to shed light on larger structural issues Each chapter in this collection of ethnographic fiction could be considered a job manual Yet not any typical job manual to do justice to the ways details about jobs are conveyed in culturally specific ways the authors adopt a range of voices and perspectives One chapter is written as though it was a letter from an older sister counseling her brother on how to be a doctor in Malawi Another is framed as a eulogy for a well loved village magistrate in Papua New Guinea who may have been killed by sorcery Beneath the novelty of the examples are some serious messages that Ilana Gershon highlights in her introduction These ethnographies reveal the connection between work and culture the impact of societal values on the conditions of employment Readers will be surprised at how much they can learn about an entire culture by being given the chance to understand just one occupation Theatreland Paul Ibell,2009-01-05 Covering the five centuries from Shakespeare s Bankside playhouses to today s West End Paul Ibell s Theatreland explores the history and current state of the London stage taking the reader through the streets and alleyways of the theatre capital of the world London s theatre district is quite literally built on the past Although the book celebrates this and the artistic achievements that still resonate today it also emphasises that theatre is an art form that can only survive and flourish through fresh talent new work and constant reinterpretation of old classics Through a series of entertaining and engaging chapters on themes personalities and trends Theatreland reflects the effortless co existence between past and present that is such a feature of London s theatre world and shows how actors and producers playwrights and publicists theatre historians and modern architects choreographers critics and customers all play their part in ensuring that London remains the theatre capital of the world Theatreland brings back to life the generations of actors impresarios princes and playwrights who created and shaped this cityscape and describes how the 21st century theatre industry continues to develop and change Encountering Environments through the Arts Victoria Hunter,Shirley Chubb,2025-03-31 This edited collection of essays and artist reflections presents perspectives from arts and humanities researchers exploring how individuals and collectives engage with relate to and experience environments The term environment is broadly conceived in this volume and encompasses rural landscapes and nature spaces urban and architectural sites institutional workplace and organisational spaces domestic environments and public and private realms Exploring what it means to encounter environments through embodied artistic and reflexive practices the essays and reflections draw on theoretical fields of feminist posthuman discourse new materialism anthropology human geography queer studies performing and fine arts art and health psychology and ecological perspectives Drawing on dialogues emerging from discursive border crossings between disciplines Encountering Environments through the Arts includes contributions from the fields of dance walking practice sonic arts visual art cultural and human geography somatic movement practice poetry and architecture This collection offers insights and reflections on environment and experience from a range of voices established and emerging scholars independent researchers and practitioner researchers within and beyond the academy Providing a truly interdisciplinary range of research that centres on notions of site specific practice and experience this is an invaluable contribution to performance studies and the wider field of arts and humanities The reflective accounts and articulation of research methods and approaches make this volume ideal for undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as scholars and researchers of performance studies dance and choreography studies cultural studies environmental humanities arts and social sciences

The Oxford Dictionary of Dance Debra Craine, Judith Mackrell, 2010-08-19 This comprehensive and up to date dictionary provides all the information necessary for dance fans to navigate the diverse dance scene of the 21st century It includes entries ranging from classical ballet to the cutting edge of modern dance

Dance Words Valerie Preston-Dunlop, 2016-01-28 In her unique collection of the verbal language of dance practitioners and researchers Valerie Preston Dunlop presents a comprehensive view of people in dance what they do their movement their sound and the space in which they work from the standpoint of the performers choreographers audiences administrators and teachers The words and phrases of their technical and vernacular languages which are used to communicate what is essentially a non verbal activity have been collected in rehearsal classes and workshops by interviews and from published sources In this first collection of its kind Valerie Preston Dunlop extends her selection of verbal language to include the various social and theatrical domains of dance

British Subjects Nigel Rapport, 2020-05-25 The anthropology of Britain is hotly debated What does it mean to live in Britain and to be British and is an anthropology of Britain even a legitimate undertaking British Subjects presents a forthright voice in this debate Key anthropological concerns such as community rationality aesthetics the body power work and leisure nationalism and transnationalism are found reflected in the lives of a wide range of British subjects from farmers to dancers children to retired miners new agers to entrepreneurs In disputing traditional claims that anthropology at home and of one's own is misconceived unnecessary or unperceptive this book clearly establishes that an anthropology of Britain can set excellent standards of subtle ethnography and complex analysis Providing a nuanced appreciation of the intricacies of British society this book shows how the anthropological study of Britain can offer an enlightening paradigm for the study of individual lives

Toward a Sound Ecology Jeff Todd Titon, 2020-08-25 How does sound ecology an acoustic connective tissue among communities also become a basis for a healthy economy and a just community Jeff Todd Titon's lived experiences shed light on the power of song the ecology of musical cultures and even cultural sustainability and resilience In Toward a Sound Ecology Titon's collected essays address his growing concerns with people making music holistic ecological approaches to music and sacred transformations of sound Titon also demonstrates how to conduct socially responsible fieldwork and compose engaging and accessible ethnography that speaks to a diverse readership Toward a Sound Ecology is an anthology of Titon's key writings which are situated chronologically within three particular areas of interest fieldwork cultural and musical sustainability and sound ecology According to Titon a foundational figure in folklore and ethnomusicology a re-orientation away from a world of texts and objects and toward a world of sound connections will reveal the basis of a universal kinship

Constant Lambert Stephen Lloyd, 2014 To the economist and ballet enthusiast John Maynard Keynes he was potentially the most brilliant man he'd ever met to Dame Ninette de Valois he was the greatest ballet conductor and advisor this country has ever had to the composer Denis ApIvor he was the greatest most lovable and most entertaining personality of the musical world whilst to the dance critic Clement Crisp he was quite simply a musician of genius Yet sixty years after his death Constant Lambert is little known today As a composer he is remembered for his jazz inspired The Rio Grande but little more and for a man who devoted the greater part of his life to the establishment of English ballet his work is largely unrecognized today This book looks not only at his music but at his journalism his talks for the BBC his championing of jazz in particular Duke Ellington and more privately his longstanding affair with Margot Fonteyn Book jacket Wastwater and 'T5' Simon Stephens,2011-03-31 You make one decision It stays with you It is like the consequences of it get into your bones Set on the edges of Heathrow airport Wastwater is an elliptical triptych a snapshot of three different couples who make a choice that will define the fallout of their future Harry is on the point of leaving England and Frieda knows she will never see him again Lisa and Mark are on the point of a sexual betrayal that takes them into a place darker than they ever thought possible Sian has a terrifying deal for Jonathan and she isn't going to take no for an answer A reflective piece by a playwright at the height of his powers and career Wastwater mimics the flexible and innovative form of Stephens's hit play Pornography with three overlapping but detachable parts which can be split and played in differing orders The play contains Stephens's trademark combination of sensitive character depiction and tough confrontation with political choices Wastwater is a meditative morality tale and a portrayal of modern day relationships formed and deformed by fatal decisions inevitable consequences and fragile connections This volume also contains the monologue T5 which portrays a road trip below the heart of London and follows a darkly magical flight out of the edges of the 21st century Royal Ballet Royal Ballet, World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Irving Brown (Consulting Bibliographer),Natasha Rappaport (Bibliographer),Don Rubin (General Editor),Rosabel Wang (Consulting Bibliographer),2013-10-11 An annotated world theatre bibliography documenting significant theatre materials published world wide since 1945 plus an index to key names throughout the six volumes of the series Whitaker's Shorts: Five Years in Review Bloomsbury Publishing,2013-11-07 Now in its 146th edition Whitaker's Almanack is the definitive reference guide containing a comprehensive overview of every aspect of UK infrastructure and an excellent introduction to world politics Available only as ebooks Whitaker's Shorts are selected themed sections from Whitaker's Almanack portable and perfect for those with specific interests within the print edition Whitaker's Shorts Five Years in Review includes a digest of the year's events from 2008/9 to 2012/13 in the UK and abroad and articles covering subjects as diverse as Archaeology Conservation Business and Finance Opera Dance Film and Weather There is also an A-Z listing of all the results for the major sporting events from Alpine Skiing through to Fencing Football Horse Racing Polo and Tennis Women at Work Anna M.
