Royal Charles Charles II And The Restoration:

Royal Charles Antonia Fraser,1996 Royal Charles: Charles II and the Restoration Antonia Pakenham Fraser (Lady),1979 Royal Charles Antonia Pakenham Fraser,1979 King Charles II Antonia Fraser,2004 The life story of Charles II from his youth when he was born to reconcile the divided world through to the execution of his father and exile to the Restoration and the many enigmas of his reign Charles II Royal Collection Trust,2018 Examining the reigns of Charles II 1600-85 and James II 1685-8 this sumptuously illustrated book focuses on the art and culture of the Restoration court From the development of an English Baroque to the use of court ritual and decorative art objects the authors explore the themes of power and passion during the reigns of these Restoration monarchs This beautiful publication not only showcases the replacement Crown Jewels made for the coronation of Charles II in 1661 but also includes Charles II's collection of Italian Old Master paintings drawings by Leonardo da Vinci and the spectacular furnishings of the palaces of Whitehall and St James's Restoration Tim Harris,2006-01-26 The late seventeenth century was a period of extraordinary turbulence and political violence in Britain the like of which has never been seen since Beginning with the Restoration of the monarchy after the Civil War this book traces the fate of the monarchy from Charles II's triumphant accession in 1660 to the growing discontent of the 1680s Harris looks beyond the popular image of Restoration England revelling in its freedom from the austerity of Puritan rule under a merry monarch and reconstructs the human tragedy of Restoration politics where people were brutalised hounded and exploited by a regime that was desperately insecure after two decades of civil war and republican rule Culture and Politics at the Court of Charles II, 1660-1685 Matthew Jenkinson,2010 The reconstitution of the royal court in 1660 brought with it the restoration of fears that had been associated with earlier Stuart courts disorder sexual liberty popery and arbitrary government This volume illustrates the ways in which court culture was informed by the heady politics of Britain between 1660 and 1685 Sir William Berkeley and the Forging of Colonial Virginia Warren M. Billings,2010-03-01 Sir William Berkeley 1605-1677 influenced colonial Virginia more than any other man of his era diversifying Virginia's trade with international markets serving as a model for the planter aristocracy and helping to establish American self rule An Oxford educated playwright soldier and diplomat Berkeley won appointment as governor of Virginia in 1641 after a decade in the court of King Charles I Between his arrival in Jamestown and his death Berkeley became Virginia's leading politician and planter indelibly stamping his ambitions accomplishments and ultimately his failures upon the colony In this masterly biography Warren M Billings offers the first full scale treatment of Berkeley's life revealing the extent to which Berkeley shaped early Virginia and linking his career to the wider context of seventeenth century Anglo American history Gender and Power in Shrew-Taming Narratives, 1500-1700 D. Wootton,G. Holderness,2010-05-11 Explores dramatic narrative and polemical versions of the taming of the shrew story from the Middle Ages to the Restoration in light of recent historical work on the position of early modern women in society Its essays address shrew narratives as an extended cultural dialogue debating issues of gender and sexual politics widely seen and appreciated even today She had an insatiable appetite for life love riches amusement and power She was simply ravenous

Mentoring in Eighteenth-Century British Literature and Culture Anthony W. Lee, 2016-04-22 In the first collection devoted to mentoring relationships in British literature and culture the editor and contributors offer a fresh lens through which to observe familiar and lesser known authors and texts Employing a variety of critical and methodological approaches which reflect the diversity of the mentoring experiences under consideration the collection highlights in particular the importance of mentoring in expanding print culture Topics include John Wilmot the Earl of Rochester's relationships to a range of role models John Dryden's mentoring of women writers Alexander Pope's problematic attempts at mentoring the vexed nature of Jonathan Swift's cross gender and cross class mentoring relationships Samuel Richardson's largely unsuccessful efforts to influence Urania Hill Johnson and an examination of Elizabeth Carter and Samuel Johnson's as co-mentors of one another's work Taken together the essays further the case for mentoring as a globally operative critical concept not only in the eighteenth century but in other literary periods as well

The Reigns of Charles II and James VII & II Lionel K.J. Glassey, 1997-03-10 British history in the period from the restoration of 1660 to the revolution of 1688 no less than in other periods has been subject to revisionism This volume examines and analyses some of the challenging new theories relating to politics society religion and culture that have attracted attention in recent years It provides both a wide ranging survey of the principal themes of the post restoration era and a series of insights derived from the detailed research of individual contributors

The Devlin Diary Christi Phillips, 2012-12-11 London 1672 A vicious killer stalks the court of Charles II inscribing his victims bodies with mysterious markings Are these the random murders of a madman The deadly consequence of a personal vendetta Or the grisly result of a hidden conspiracy Cambridge 2008 A Trinity College history professor is found dead the torn page of a seventeenth century diary in his hand His death appears to be an accident but the college's newest Fellow Claire Donovan and historian Andrew Kent suspect otherwise The professor's last research subject was Hannah Devlin a physician to the king's mistress and the keeper of a diary that holds the key to a series of unsolved murders in 1670s London Through the arcane collections of Trinity's Wren Library the British Library and the Royal Society Claire and Andrew follow the clues Hannah left behind unearthing secrets of the past and present as both stories unfold to their shocking conclusions

Novels, Needleworks, and Empire Chloe Wigston Smith, 2024-03-12 The first sustained study of the vibrant links between domestic craft and British colonialism In the eighteenth century women's contributions to empire took fewer official forms than those collected in state archives Their traces were recorded in material ways through the ink they applied to paper or the artifacts they created with muslin silk threads feathers and shells Handiwork such as sewing knitting embroidery and other crafts formed a familiar presence in the lives and learning of girls and women across social classes and it was deeply connected to colonialism Chloe Wigston Smith follows the material and visual images of the Atlantic world that found their way into the hands of women and girls in Britain and early America in the objects they made the books they held the stories they read and in doing so adjusted and altered the form and content of print and material culture A range of artifacts made by women including makers of color brought the global into conversation with domestic crafts and consequently placed images of empire and colonialism within arm s reach Together fiction and handicrafts offer new evidence of women s material contributions to the home s place within the global eighteenth century revealing the rich and complex connections between the global and the domestic The Origin and History of the First Or Grenadier Guards Sir Frederick William Hamilton,1874

Early Modern Histories of Time Kristen Poole,Owen Williams,2019-09-13 Early Modern Histories of Time examines how a range of chronological modes intrinsic to the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries shaped the thought worlds of those living during this time and explores how these temporally indigenous models can productively influence our own working concepts of historical period This innovative approach thus moves beyond debates about where we should divide linear time and what to call the ensuing segments to reconsider the very concept of period Bringing together an eminent cast of literary scholars and historians the volume develops productive historical models by drawing on the very texts and cultural contexts that are their objects of study What happens to the idea of period when English literature is properly placed within the dynamic currents of pan European literary phenomena How might we think of historical period through the palimpsested nature of buildings through the religious concept of the secular through the demographic model of the life cycle even through the repetitive labor of laundering From theology to material culture to the temporal constructions of Shakespeare and from the politics of space to the poetics of typology the essays in this volume take up diverse complex models of sixteenth and seventeenth century temporality and contemplate their current relevance for our own ideas of history The volume thus embraces the ambiguity inherent in the word contemporary moving between our subjects sense of self emplacement and the historiographical need to address the questions and concerns that affect us today Contributors Douglas Bruster Euan Cameron Heather Dubrow Kate Giles Tim Harris Natasha Korda Julia Reinhard Lupton Kristen Poole Ethan H Shagan James Simpson Nigel Smith Mihoko Suzuki Gordon Teskey Julianne Werlin Owen Williams Steven N Zwicker
