Organized Information Jillian M. Hess, 2022-07-21 Every literary household in nineteenth century Britain had a commonplace book scrapbook or album Coleridge called his collection Fly Catchers while George Eliot referred to one of her commonplace books as a Quarry and Michael Faraday kept quotations in his Philosophical Miscellany Nevertheless the nineteenth century commonplace book along with associated traditions like the scrapbook and album remain under studied This book tells the story of how technological and social changes altered methods for gathering storing and organizing information in nineteenth century Britain As the commonplace book moved out of the schoolroom and into the home it took on elements of the friendship album At the same time the explosion of print allowed readers to cheaply cut and paste extractions rather than copying out quotations by hand Built on the evidence of over 300 manuscripts this volume unearths the composition practices of well known writers such as Samuel Taylor Coleridge Sir Walter Scott George Eliot and Alfred Lord Tennyson and their less well known contemporaries Divided into two sections the first half of the book contends that methods for organizing knowledge developed in line with the period's dominant epistemic frameworks while the second half argues that commonplace books helped Romantics and Victorians organize people. Chapters focus on prominent organizational methods in nineteenth century commonplacing often attached to an associated epistemic virtue: diaristic forms and the imagination. Chapter Two: real time entries signalling objectivity. Chapter Three: antiquarian remnants serving as empirical evidence for historical arguments. Chapter Four: communally produced commonplace books that attest to socially constructed knowledge. Chapter Five: and blank spaces in commonplace books of mourning. Chapter Six: Richly illustrated this book brings an archive of commonplace books, scrapbooks and albums to the reader.

Buttress's World Guide to Abbreviations of Organizations L. Pitman, 2012-12-06 The previous edition of this directory extended its coverage of the Far East, Australasia and Latin America areas previously under represented. For this new edition emphasis has been given to increasing the number of entries for organizations from Britain, the United States and Australia and particular attention has been paid to new political organizations in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union. The number of entries included has gone up to over 68 000 of which over 9 000 are new or amended. Cross references from defunct organizations in the previous edition have been deleted and references indicated by ex and now added for organizations which have changed their name since the previous edition. As before the range of organizations included is broad and only purely local organizations have been excluded. This directory therefore lists official and unofficial organizations national and international on all Subjects: political, economic and social. Acronyms of parent bodies of subsidiary organizations are given where appropriate and equivalencies are used to link acronyms in different languages for the same organization. Further information about the organizations listed can be found in the sources listed in the bibliography. I would like to thank Henry Heaney and Graeme Mackintosh for their advice and David Grinyer for his technical support. L. M.
