Stones of Contention Todd Cleveland, 2014-05-26 Africa supplies the majority of the world s diamonds yet consumers generally know little about the origins and history of these precious stones beyond sensationalized media accounts of so called blood diamonds Stones of Contention explores the major developments in the remarkable history of Africa s diamonds from the earliest stirrings of international interest in the continent s mineral wealth in the first millennium A D to the present day In the European colonial period the discovery of diamonds in South Africa ushered in an era of unprecedented greed during which monopolistic enterprises exploited both the mineral resources and the indigenous workforce In the aftermath of World War II the governments of newly independent African states both democratic and despotic joined industry giant De Beers and other corporations to oversee and profit from mining activity on the continent The book also considers the experiences of a wide array of Africans from informal artisanal miners company mineworkers and indigenous authorities to armed rebels mining executives and premiers of mineral rich states and their relationships to the stones that have the power to bring both wealth and misery With photos and maps Stones of Contention illustrates the scope and complexity of the African diamond trade as well as its impact on individuals and societies

Astronomy , Living Knowledge in West African Islam Zachary Valentine Wright, 2015-02-04 Living Knowledge in West African Islam examines the actualization of religious identity in the community of Ibr h m Niasse d 1975 Senegal With millions of followers throughout Africa and the world the community arguably represents one of the twentieth century s most successful Islamic revivals Niasse s followers members of the Tij niyya Sufi order gave particular attention to the widespread transmission of the experiential knowledge ma rifa of God They also worked to articulate a global Islamic identity in the crucible of African decolonization The central argument of this book is that West African Sufism is legible only with an appreciation of centuries of Islamic knowledge specialization in the region Sufi masters and disciples reenacted and deepened preexisting teacher student relationships surrounding the learning of core Islamic disciplines such as the Qur'an and jurisprudence Learning Islam meant the transformative inscription of sacred knowledge in the student's very being a disposition acquired in the master's exemplary physical presence Sufism did not undermine traditional Islamic orthodoxy the continued transmission of Sufi knowledge has in fact preserved and revived traditional Islamic learning in West Africa
