Devereux,2016-08-10 When women were admitted to the Royal Academy Schools in 1860 female art students gained a foothold in the most conservative art institution in England The Royal Female College of Art the South Kensington Schools and the Slade School of Fine Art also produced increasing numbers of women artists Their entry into a male dominated art world altered the perspective of other artists and the public They came from disparate levels of society Princess Louise the fourth daughter of Queen Victoria studied sculpture at the National Art Training School yet they all shared ambition talent and courage Analyzing their education and careers this book argues that the women who attended the art schools during the 1860s and 1870s including Kate Greenaway Elizabeth Butler Helen Allingham Evelyn De Morgan and Henrietta Rae produced work that would accommodate yet subtly challenge the orthodoxies of the fine art establishment Without their contributions Victorian art would be not simply the poorer but hardly recognizable to us today      Royally Wronged largely focus on community functions but the role of lieutenant governor is more than ceremonial This was demonstrated after the 2017 provincial election when then Lieutenant Governor Judith Guichon accepted Premier Christy Clark's resignation and asked NDP leader John Horgan to attempt to form government rather than call a new election BC's early lieutenant governors were the force behind infrastructure initiatives such as building roads railways and ships and investing in electric utilities and the forest industry Although most came from the ranks of the British elite and often espoused policies that denied First Nations land rights and opposed the immigration of Chinese and Japanese people over time the office became more representative of the province's diverse population In recent years lieutenant governors have played an increasingly activist role celebrating cultural excellence and promoting literacy creativity environmental awareness Chinese Canadian David Lam 1988-95 had a mandate of intercultural understanding Iona Campagnolo 2001-7 the first woman to hold the position in BC focused on empowering youth and women and fostering a spirit of public inclusiveness at Government House Steven Point 2007-12 BC's first Indigenous lieutenant governor worked to establish libraries in First Nations communities Chronologically arranged and rich with photographs this work by historian Jenny Clayton paints a vivid picture of the lives of BC's thirty lieutenant governors Clayton's biographical essays capture the distinct personalities and events that have characterized the office from 1871 to the present offering a unique perspective on the evolution of the province
