Rubens And The Poetics Of Landscape:

Rubens and the Poetics of Landscape Lisa Vergara, Landscape and Western Art Malcolm Andrews, 1999 This book explores many issues raised by the range of ideas and images of the natural world in Western art since the Renaissance The whole concept of landscape is examined as a representation of the relationship between the human and natural worlds Featured artists include Claude Freidrich Turner Cole and Ruisdael and many different forms of landscape art are addressed such as land art painting photography garden design panorama and cartography Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens Flemish 1577 1640 in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547 1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist s approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600 08 this volume highlights Rubens s high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens s early practice of drawing Focusing on Rubens s Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children Los Angeles Getty Museum and Kneeling Man Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen these close looking case studies demonstrate Rubens s commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens s intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age "Rubens and the Archaeology of Myth, 1610?620 " Aneta Georgievska-Shine, 2017-07-05 Focusing on four Rubens paintings created between 1610 and 1620 Prometheus Bound The Rape of the Daughters of Leucippus Juno and Argus and The Finding of Erichthonius this book re examines the artist s approach to classical mythology These theoretically informed readings provide a fuller understanding of the dynamics of Rubens s copious visual language and can serve as methodological templates for looking at and reading of many other of his complex inventions Even by the standards of erudition commonly applied to Rubens s oeuvre as a whole these four paintings were created during a period characterized by a particularly intense engagement on his part with questions of artistic originality and ideal style Furthermore the learned themes of these images clearly point to a rarefied audience that could appreciate the intertextual qualities of ancient myths Like the artist himself these ideal beholders cultivated a mode of viewing steeped in classical and renaissance theories of literary and rhetorical composition Thus through these close readings the author illuminates the manner in which the rhetorical and poetic conventions of the period as well as the growing appreciation for the various allegorical layers of fables lead to a better understanding of Rubens's pictorial archaeology of classical myths Landscape and Philosophy in the Art of Jan Brueghel the Elder (1568-1625) Leopoldine van Hogendorp Prosperetti, 2009 In this first comprehensive full length study in English on the art of Jan Brueghel the Elder Leopoldine Prosperetti discloses the nature of the philosophical culture of Antwerp at the time show its importance in the lives of cultivated citizens and reveals the patterns of thought and visual stratagems by which his landscapes underwrite the pursuit of wisdom The book presents a new model for the interpretation of a range of visual genres including various types of landscape that were popular in the Antwerp picture trade Landscape and Philosophy in the Art of Jan Brueghel the Elder (1568-1625) Leopoldine Prosperetti, 2017-07-05 In this first comprehensive full length study in English on the art of Jan Brueghel the Elder Leopoldine Prosperetti illuminates how the work of this painter relates to a philosophical culture prevailing in the Antwerp of his time She shows that no matter what scenery figures or objects stock the pictorial field Brueghel's diverse pictures have something in common they all embed visual trajectories that allow for the viewer to craft out of the raw material of the picture a moment of spiritual repose Rooted in the art of Hieronymus Bosch and Pieter Bruegel the Elder these vistas are shown to meet the expectation of viewers to discover in their mazes a rhetorically conceived path to wisdom The key issue is the ambition of pictorial images to bring into practice the humanist belief that philosophy and rhetoric are inseparable This original study analyzes the patterns of thought and recurrent optical tropes that constitute a visual poetics for shifting genres no longer devotional yet sharing in the meditative goal of redirecting the soul toward an intuitive knowledge of what is good in life This book reveals how everyday life is the preferred vehicle for delivering the results of philosophical pursuits One chapter is dedicated to Brueghel's innovative attention to the experience of traveling in a variety of wheeled vehicles along the roads of his native Brabant He is unique and surprisingly modern in giving contemporary viewers an accurate account of all the different types of conveyances that clutter the roads It makes for lively versions of one of his favorite themes The Traveled Road By taking the pursuit of wisdom as its theme the book succeeds in presenting a new model for the interpretation of a range of visual genres in the Antwerp picture trade

Landscape between Ideology and the Aesthetic Andrew Hemingway, 2016-11-28 At a time of growing interest in relations between Marxism and Romanticism Andrew Hemingway's essays on British art and art theory reopen the question of Romantic painting's ideological functions and in some cases its critical purchase Half the volume exposes the voices of competing class interests in aesthetics and art theory in the tumultuous years of British history between the American Revolution and the 1832 Parliamentary Reform Act Half offers new perspectives on works by some of the most important landscape painters of the time John Constable J M W Turner John Crome and John Sell Cotman Four essays are hitherto unpublished and the remainder have been updated and in several cases substantially rewritten for this volume Peasant
