The Cambridge History of Christianity: Volume 4, Christianity in Western Europe, c.1100-c.1500 Miri Rubin, Walter Simons, 2014-07-31 During the early middle ages Europe developed complex and varied Christian cultures and from about 1100 secular rulers competing factions and inspired individuals continued to engender a diverse and ever changing mix within Christian society This volume explores the wide range of institutions practices and experiences associated with the life of European Christians in the later middle ages The clergy of this period initiated new approaches to the role of priests bishops and popes and developed an ambitious project to instruct the laity For lay people the practices of parish religion were central but many sought additional ways to enrich their lives as Christians Impulses towards reform and renewal periodically swept across Europe led by charismatic preachers and supported by secular rulers This book provides accessible accounts of these complex historical processes and entices the reader towards further enquiry The Catholic Almanac, 1990 Felician A. Foy, Rose M. Avato, 1990 Rulers, Religion, and Riches Jared Rubin, 2017-02-16 For centuries following the spread of Islam the Middle East was far ahead of Europe Yet the modern economy was born in Europe Why was it not born in the Middle East In this book Jared Rubin examines the role that Islam played in this reversal of fortunes It argues that the religion itself is not to blame the importance of religious legitimacy in Middle Eastern politics was the primary culprit Muslim religious authorities were given an important seat at the political bargaining table which they used to block important advancements such as the printing press and lending at interest In Europe however the Church played a weaker role in legitimizing rule especially where Protestantism spread indeed the Reformation was successful due to the spread of printing which was blocked in the Middle East It was precisely in those Protestant nations especially England and the Dutch Republic where the modern economy was born Catholic Almanac, 1991 Felician A. Foy, Rose M.

Avato, 1990-11 Sacramental Poetics in Richard Hooker and George Herbert Brian Douglas, 2022-06-06 This book explores sacramental poetics through the lens of moderate realism in the thought and work of Anglican theologians Richard Hooker c 1554 1600 and George Herbert 1593 1633 It does this in relation to the Christian sacraments of baptism and the Eucharist and as a way of exploring the abundance of God Brian Douglas begins in chapter 1 with a general discussion of a sacramental poetic and sacramentality in the Anglican tradition and proceeds to a more detailed examination of the writings of both Hooker chapter 2 and Herbert chapter 3 Each writer explores in their own way abundant life found as participation in and relationship with Christ and expressed as a sacramental poetic based on moderate realism Douglas goes on in chapter 4 to explore the idea of conversation and dialogue as employed by Hooker and Herbert as part of a sacramental poetic The book concludes in chapter 5 with a more general discussion on the abundance of God and living of the good and abundant life and some of the issues this involves in the modern world Who's who in America ,1950 The Foundation Grants Index, 1970-71 Lee Noe,1972-03 The Monthly Supplement ,1946
