Son, 2014-05-08 Ritual Practices in Congregational Identity Formation investigates the educational roles of ritual practices in the process of congregational identity formation Son identifies and analyzes various kinds of Christian rituals with respect to how rituals influence the formational processes of a congregation s identity Based on Victor Turner s ritual theory this book also investigates the pedagogical and transformative efficacies of ritual practices within the dynamics of congregational education Leading the Congregation Norman Shawchuck, Roger Heuser, 2010-10-01 Leading the Congregation is a complete and definitive guide to the practice of church leadership The book describes essential paradigms for the leader that integrate spiritual integrity and service within a systems view of the congregation and its ministry This revised and updated version focuses on the challenges of congregational leadership in a culture that has fewer ties to Christian faith The authors lay out the dual contexts in which church leaders must function within the congregation and as the congregation s representative to the community and they explain the very different skill sets required to flourish in each Underlying the revised edition is an insistence on the congregational leader s call from God and cultivation of her or his relationship with God Leadership is not the same thing as charisma they explain it is rather a set of attitudes and practices that each of us can and must master if we are to be worthy servants of Christ Leadership Handbook of Management and Administration James D. Doing Good, Well Dr. Craig A. Bell, 2020-03-20 This book is an attempt to synthesize the logic of mathematics organizational behavioral management policy of an MBA and ecclesial scholarship of a Doctorate of Strategic Leadership into the pages of one book This book begins with the premise that similar to corporate leaders faith based leaders are also capable of implementing these skills and resources to maximize the efficiency of church organizations It is critical that they have a full toolkit of resources to leverage when administering their organizations It also acknowledges and recognizes that a life fully engaged in active ministry doesn't necessarily allow time to pursue degrees in each of the aforementioned subjects As a result Dr Bell has attempted to create a medium through which ecclesial practitioners and scholars may review these various topics to obtain insight Similar to survey courses in college readers should see it as a beginning point for further exploration Take from it what you will and apply it to your God given vision Use it as a springboard to the progressively revealed Will of God for the effective administration of your call

Education for Reflective Ministry J. A. van der Ven, 1998 The picture that pastors have of themselves and of their experiences in the ministry is ambivalent On the one hand they find the pastoral work which they perform meaningful important and relevant On the other hand pastors suffer from chronic stress of some sort caused by different factors on the micro meso and macro level of religion church and society Many pastors experience the modernization and subsequently the secularization process as a very serious problem which negatively influences religious life within the parish Pastors are bowed down by uncertainty over how their work contributes to the parish mission in today's society and even more so by doubts over what that mission is in particular the diaconal mission Which direction can shall should the pastor take if neither the church nor the theological institutions are able to provide him or her with a clear frame of reference an attractive perspective a convincing policy a plausible course of action and a meaningful set of aims goals and objectives There is no alternative but to risk taking responsibility for oneself and choosing one's own course of action To take this risk is not reckless or foolhardy as long as the choices are always informed by a religious self reflection that is open to tradition as well as to the future This allows the pastor to be his own guide to transgress useless customs and habits and cross the boundaries into as yet unknown territory. The task of education must be to provide the foundation that enables the pastor to make those choices and take those risks in a well considered prudent and truly religious manner. This study represents not only an interpretative description of some of the education for ministry in today's societal cultural and ecclesiastical context in the western world but also a proposal for a new model: the reflective ministry model.
