Managing Existence In Naples Morality Action And Structure:

Managing Existence in Naples Italo Pardo, 1996-09-19 Neapolitan scholar Italo Pardo has produced a thoughtful and original account of the moral life of Naples where the ethics of family and neighborhood exist in tension with the constraints of church and government Dr Pardo shows how different ethical systems are accommodated in the choices of everyday life while success is measured by satisfying spiritual obligations as well as by material gain This is one of the very few ethnographic studies of a European city it questions old assumptions and raises fresh issues in the field of urban studies

Post-socialist Informalities Abel Polese, Lela Rekhviashvili, Borbála Kovács, Jeremy Morris, 2018-10-19 This book is a comprehensive collection of key scholarship on informality from the whole post socialist region From Bosnia to Central Asia passing through Russia and Azerbaijan the contributions to this volume illustrate the multi faceted and complex nature of informality while demonstrating the growing scholarly and policy debates that have developed around the understanding of informality In contrast to approaches which tend to classify informality as bad or transitional meaning that modernity will make it disappear this edited volume concentrates on dynamics and mechanisms to understand and explain informality while also debating its relationship with the market and society The authors seek to explain informality beyond a mere monetaristic economic approach rediscovering its interconnection with social phenomena to propose a more holistic interpretation of the meaning of informality and its influence in various spheres of life They do this by exploring the evolving role of informal practices in the post socialist region and by focusing on informality as a social organisation determinant but also looking at the way it reshapes emergent social resistance against symbolic and real political order s This book was originally published as two special issues of Caucasus Survey and the Journal of Contemporary Central and Eastern Europe

Workers and Narratives of Survival in Europe Angela Procoli, 2012-02-01 Workers and Narratives of Survival in Europe explores the growing problem of job uncertainty in Europe at the end of the twentieth century The management of professional precariousness is reconsidered against the backdrop of far reaching social economic and political changes in Europe in recent decades including the instability of the traditional family the emergence of new forms of parenthood globalization of the economic sphere attempts to impose a uniform pattern of culture and the breakdown of borders with former Communist countries The contributors utilize extensive field studies in both Western and Central Europe to understand the meaning of professional uncertainty as perceived by its victims and the strategies they develop to face it

Encountering Entrepreneurs Elena Sischarenco, 2019-04-09 This book shows the daily life of businessmen in a particularly productive area of Northern Italy Lombardy It provides insights into their business entrepreneurialism and of them as individuals allowing the reader to immerse themselves in these businessmen s world full of plans ideas hopes and failures in the struggle to survive during a time of economic recession The analysis reveals the importance of trust and networks as a way of opposing the vulnerability and risk involved in entrepreneurialism As such the book has an appeal that extends beyond anthropology It will be of interest not only to students of sociology Italian studies and business studies but also to anyone with an interest in seeing business through different lenses Through its close ethnographic accounts of businessmen it provides a different approach to capitalism and a reflection on human nature Beyond Multiculturalism Giuliana B. Prato,2016-04-15 While the anthropological field initially shied away from the debate on multiculturalism it has been widely discussed within the fields of political theory social policy cultural studies and law Beyond Multiculturalism is the first volume of its kind to offer a comparative worldwide view of multiculturalism considering both traditional multicultural multiethnic societies and those where cultural pluralism is relatively new Its varied case studies focus on the intersections and relationships between cultural groups in everyday life using employment identity consumption language legislation and policy making to show the unique contribution anthropologists can bring to multiculturalism studies Their work will be of great interest to scholars of race ethnicity migration urban studies and social and cultural geography Morals of Legitimacy Italo Pardo,2001-01-01 With the growing fragmentation of western societies and disillusionment with the political process the question of legitimacy has become one of the key issues of contemporary politics and is examined in this volume in depth for the first time Drawing on ethnographic material from the U S Europe India Japan and Africa anthropologists and legal scholars investigate the morally diversified definitions of legitimacy that co exist in any one society Aware of the tensions between state morality and community morality they offer reflections on the relationship between agency individual and collective and the legal and political systems In a situation in which politics has only too often degenerated into vacuous rhetoric this volume demonstrates how critical the relationship between trust and legitimacy is for the authoritative exercise of power in democratic societies Anthropology in the City Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato,2016-05-23 With half of humanity already living in towns and cities and that proportion expected to increase in the coming decades society both Western and non Western is fast becoming urban and even mega urban As such research in urban settings is evidently timely and of great importance Anthropology in the City brings together a leading team of anthropologists to address the complex methodological and theoretical challenges posed by field research in urban settings clearly identifying the significance of the anthropological paradigm in urban research and its centrality both to mainstream academic debates and to society more broadly With essays from experts on wide ranging ethnographic research from fields as diverse as China Europe India Latin and North America and South East Asia this book demonstrates the contribution that empirically based anthropological analysis can make to our understanding of our increasingly urban world Vertical Cities Maloutas, Thomas, Karadimitriou, Nikos,2022-10-20 Exploring the social implications of dense and compact cities this enlightening book looks at micro scale segregation through several lenses These include the ways that the housing market constantly reconfigures social mix how the structure of the housing stock shapes it and the ways that policies are deployed to manage these effects The Liminal Worker Manos Spyridakis,2016-03-03 The Liminal Worker examines the experience of work employment employment insecurity and precariousness in a context of high unemployment and welfare state crisis in modern Greece A theoretically informed anthropological exploration of the notion of work in contemporary western society and its relation to processes of political decision making this book challenges the mainstream conception of work as an economic or purely productive activity presenting a comparative analysis of work as a social phenomenon Drawing on original empirical research it explores the key themes of the transformation experience meaning and narrative of work and its relation to attendant social policies A unique examination of the complicated experience of work and labour relations within power systems institutions and organisations as well as the reactions and survival strategies of ordinary actors facing precariousness in their daily existence The Liminal Worker elaborates upon the notion of the anthropology of work and investigates the connection between ethnographic data and its critical analysis and the formation of policy As such it will be of interest to anthropologists sociologists policy makers and geographers concerned with questions of work labour relations and policy formation

Citizenship and the Legitimacy of Governance Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2016-05-23 Against the background of unease at the increasingly loose and conflictual relationship between citizenship and governance this book brings together rich ethnographic studies from EU member states and post Communist and Middle Eastern countries in the Mediterranean Region to illustrate the crisis of legitimacy inherent in the weakening link between political responsibility and trust in the exercise of power With close attention to the impact of the ambiguities and distortions of governance at the local level and their broader implications at the international level where a state's legitimacy depends on its democratic credentials Citizenship and the Legitimacy of Governance initiates a comparative discussion of the relationship between established moralities politics law and civil society in a highly diversified region with a strong history of cultural exchange Demonstrating that a comparative anthropological analysis has much to offer to our understanding this volume reveals that the city is a crucial arena for the renegotiation of citizenship democracy and belonging
