Managing Turbulent Hearts A Balinese Formula For Living:

Managing Turbulent Hearts Unni Wikan, 1990-12-15 How do Balinese manage to present to the world the clear bright face the grace and poise that they regard as crucial to self respect and social esteem How can the anthropologist pass behind the conventions of such a complex culture to recognize what is going on between people in terms that convey their own experience Wikan's study of the Indonesian island of Bali is an absorbing debate with previous anthropological interpretations as well as an innovative development of the anthropology of experience This is indeed an important book a landmark in studies of Bali and one surely destined to have major theoretical impact on anthropological research well beyond that famous Indonesian island Anthony R Walker Journal of Asian and African Studies Making a Living between Crises and Ceremonies in Tana Toraja Edwin B.P. de Jong, 2013-06-07 Making a Living between Crisis and Ceremonies offers an account on the practice of everyday life of the Torajan people both in the highlands of Tana Toraja South Sulawesi Indonesia and elsewhere Makassar Jakarta Maleisi Digital Humanities and Material Religion Emily Suzanne Clark, Rachel McBride Lindsey, 2022-04-04 Building from a range of essays representing multiple fields of expertise and traversing multiple religious traditions this important text provides analytic rigor to a question now pressing the academic study of religion what is the relationship between the material and the digital Its chapters address a range of processes of mediation between the digital and the material from a variety of perspectives and sub disciplines within the field of religion in order to theorize the implications of these two turns in scholarship offer case studies in methodology and reflect on various tools and processes Authors attend to religious practices and the internet digital archives of religion decolonization embodiment digitization of religious artefacts and objects and the ways in which varied relationships between the digital and the material shape religious life Collectively the volume demonstrates opportunities and challenges at the intersection of digital humanities and material religion Rather than defining the bounds of a new field of inquiry the essays make a compelling case collectively and on their own for the interpretive scrutiny required of the humanities in the digital age Southeast Asian Lives Roxana Waterson, 2007 Publisher description The Problem of Context Roy Dilley, 1999 Various disciplines use context to elucidate and interpret objects and events but rarely is the idea of context itself examined What meanings are evoked by this term How do social anthropologists and those in related disciplines construe this idea What analytical strategies are adopted in order to suggest that the relevant context is self evident Supporting People through Loss and Grief John Wilson, 2013-12-21 This accessible handbook provides a comprehensive guide to working with people experiencing grief bereavement and loss It covers theories and models of grief essential skills and how to support people in practice It is essential reading for counsellors bereavement support volunteers palliative care nurses students and trainers Recasting Ritual Mary M. Negotiating Religious Identities within Majority-Minority Relationships in Bali and Lombok ,2014-05-22 Between Harmony and Discrimination explores the varying expressions of religious practices and the intertwined shifting interreligious relationships of the peoples of Bali and Lombok As religion has become a progressively more important identity marker in the 21st century the shared histories and practices of peoples of both similar and differing faiths are renegotiated reconfirmed or reconfigured This renegotiation inspired by Hindu or Islamic reform movements that encourage greater global identifications has created situations that are perceived locally to oscillate between harmony and discrimination depending on the relationships and the contexts in which they are acting Religious belonging is increasingly important among the Hindus and Muslims of Bali and Lombok minorities Christians Chinese on both islands have also sought global partners Contributors include Brigitta Hauser Sch ublin David D Harnish I Wayan Ardika Ni Luh Sitjiati Beratha Erni Budiwanti I Nyoman Darma Putra I Nyoman Dhana Leo Howe Mary Ida Bagus Lene Pedersen Martin Slama Meike Rieger Sophie Strauss Kari Telle and Dustin Wiebe Understanding Trauma Laurence J. Kirmayer,Robert Lemelson,Mark Barad,2007-01-15 This book analyzes the individual and collective experience of and response to trauma from a wide range of perspectives including basic neuroscience clinical science and cultural anthropology Each perspective presents critical and creative challenges to the other The first section reviews the effects of early life stress on the development of neural systems and vulnerability to persistent effects of trauma The second section of the book reviews a wide range of clinical approaches to the treatment of the effects of trauma The final section of the book presents cultural analyses of personal social and political responses to massive trauma and genocidal events in a variety of societies This work goes well beyond the neurobiological models of conditioned fear and clinical syndrome of post traumatic stress disorder to examine how massive traumatic events affect the whole fabric of a society calling forth collective responses of resilience and moral transformation
