Mandate For Leadership II Continuing The Conservative Revolution:

Mandate for Leadership II Stuart M. Butler, Michael Sanera, W. Bruce Weinrod, Heritage Foundation (Washington, D.C.), 1984 Mandate for Leadership is a series of books published by The Heritage Foundation an American conservative think tank based in Washington D C They are intended to serve as guidelines for reducing the size and scope of the federal government through specific policy recommendations The books have traditionally been released to coincide with an incoming U S presidential administration starting with the Reagan administration in 1981 The latest edition was published in 2005 The Conservative Revolution Lee Edwards, 1999-07-23 The triumph of the conservative movement in reshaping American politics is one of the great untold stories of the past fifty years At the end of World War II hardly anyone in public life would admit to being a conservative but as Lee Edwards shows in this magisterial work in the 1950s 1960s and 1970s a small group of committed men and women began to chip away at the liberal colossus and their descendants would scale the ramparts of power in the 1980s and 1990s Not even the fall of Newt Gingrich has changed the indisputable fact that the movement has truly rewritten the rules of American political life and the republic will never be the same Edwards tells the stories of how conservatives built a movement from the ground up by starting magazines by building grass roots organizations and by seizing control of the Republican party from those who espoused collaboration with the liberals and promised only to manage the welfare state more efficiently and not to dismantle it But most of all he tells the story of four men four leaders who put their personal stamp on this movement and helped to turn it into the most important political force in our country today Robert Taft Mr Republican the beacon of conservative principle during the lean Roosevelt and Truman years Barry Goldwater Mr Conservative the flinty Westerner who inspired a new generation Ronald Reagan Mr President the optimist whose core beliefs were sturdy enough to subdue an evil empire Newt Gingrich Mr Speaker the fiery visionary who won a Congress but lost control of it By their example and vision these men brought intellectual and ideological stability to an often fractious conservative movement and held the high ground against the pragmatists who would compromise conservative principles for transitory political advantage And through their efforts and those of their supporters they transformed the American political landscape so thoroughly that a Democratic president would one day proclaim The era of big government is over Political history in the grand style The Conservative Revolution is the definitive book on a conservative movement that not only has left its mark on our century but is poised to shape the century about to dawn

Reagan, Trilateralism, and the Neoliberals Holly Sklar, 1986 Demystifies U S foreign policy in the 80s and explores the policy options of rollback moderate containment and neoliberal containment Uses the example of Nicaragua to unravel pretexts for U S intervention throughout the Third World Do Think Tanks Matter? Donald E. Abelson, 2009-09 Assessing the evolution and influence of public policy institutes Race and the Making of American Liberalism Carol A. Horton, 2005-09-08 Race and the Making of American Liberalism traces the roots of the contemporary crisis of progressive liberalism deep into the nation's racial past Horton argues that the contemporary conservative claim that the American liberal tradition has been rooted in a color blind conception of individual rights is inaccurate and misleading In contrast American liberalism has alternatively served both to support and oppose racial hierarchy as well as socioeconomic inequality more broadly Racial politics in the United States have repeatedly made it exceedingly difficult to establish powerful constituencies that understand socioeconomic equity as vital to American democracy and aspire to limit gross disparities of wealth power and status Revitalizing such equalitarian conceptions of American liberalism Horton suggests will require developing new forms of racial and class identity that support rather than sabotage this fundamental political commitment

The Administrative Presidency Revisited Robert F. Durant,1992-01-01 Federal Evaluation United States. General Accounting Office,1987 Fifty Years at the US Environmental Protection Agency A. James Barnes,John D. Graham,David M. Konisky,2021-02-15 In conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the creation of the Environmental Protection Agency this book brings together leading scholars and EPA veterans to provide a comprehensive assessment of the agency's key decisions and actions in the various areas of its responsibility Themes across all chapters include the role of rulemaking negotiation compromise partisan polarization judicial impacts relations with the White House and Congress public opinion interest group pressures environmental enforcement environmental justice risk assessment and interagency conflict As no other book on the market currently discusses EPA with this focus or scope the authors have set out to provide a comprehensive analysis of the agency's rich 50 year history for academics students professional and the environmental community Constitutional Coup Jon D. Michaels,2017-10-23 Americans hate bureaucracy though they love the services it provides and demand that government run like a business Hence today's privatization revolution Jon Michaels shows how the fusion of politics and profits commercializes government and consolidates state power in ways the Constitution's framers endeavored to disaggregate Who We Be Jeff Chang,2024-06-04 Race A four letter word The greatest social divide in American life a half century ago and today During that time the U S has seen the most dramatic demographic and cultural shifts in its history what can be called the colorization of America But the same nation that elected its first Black president on a wave of hope another four letter word is still plunged into endless culture wars How do Americans see race now How has that changed and not changed over the half century After eras framed by words like multicultural and post racial do we see each other any more clearly Who We Be remixes comic strips and contemporary art campus protests and corporate marketing campaigns Martin Luther King Jr and Trayvon Martin into a powerful unusual and timely cultural history of the idea of racial progress In this follow up to the award winning classic Can't Stop Won't Stop A History of the Hip Hop Generation Jeff Chang brings fresh energy style and sweep to the essential American story
