

"The poems on Mandela comment on one another, deepening our response to the nature of political immolation. The other poems are not as urgent but they are no less scintillating . . . Mandela's Earth is an invaluable interlinkage of poems, words for a new age."

Ben Okri Guardian

"No one now writing has appropriated blank verse with the energy and conviction of Soyinka . . . Shakespeare's pulse and rhythm underwrite Soyinka's passionate, post-imperial odes, addresses, satires and hymns . . . He invents, imagines and creates, even when his inspiration is topical . . . His poetry blazes from the pages."
