Manets Silence And The Poetics Of Bouquets:

Manet's Silence and the Poetics of Bouquets James Henry Rubin, Édouard Manet, 1994 Rubin also examines Manet's relationship to three of the leading critics of his day Baudelaire Zola and Mallarmé giving special attention to Mallarmé's appreciation and eventual use in his own poetry of the paradox between immersion and externality in Manet's oeuvre Finally the book uses the image of the bouquet to exemplify Manet's creative poetics through an exploration of his still life A Companion to Impressionism André Dombrowski, 2028-08-14 The 21st century's first major academic reassessment of Impressionism providing a new generation of scholars with a comprehensive view of critical conversations Presenting an expansive view of the study of Impressionism this extraordinary volume breaks new thematic ground while also reconsidering established questions surrounding the definition chronology and membership of the Impressionist movement In 34 original essays from established and emerging scholars this collection considers a diverse range of developing topics and offers new critical approaches to the interpretation of Impressionist art Focusing on the 1860s to 1890s this Companion explores artists who are well represented in Impressionist studies including Monet Renoir Degas and Cassatt as well as Morisot Caillebotte Bazille and other significant yet lesser known artists The essays cover a wide variety of methodologies in addressing such topics as Impressionism's global predominance at the turn of the 20th century the relationship between Impressionism and the emergence of new media the materials and techniques of the Impressionists and the movement's exhibition and reception history Part of the acclaimed Wiley Blackwell Companions to Art History series this important new addition to scholarship in this field Reevaluates the origins chronology and critical reception of French Impressionism Discusses Impressionism's account of modern identity in the contexts of race nationality gender and sexuality Explores the global reach and influence of Impressionism in Europe the Middle East East Asia North Africa and the Americas Considers Impressionism's relationship to the emergence of film and photography in the 19th century Considers Impressionism's representation of the private sphere as compared to its depictions of public issues such as empire finance and environmental change Addresses the Impressionist market and clientele period criticism and exhibition displays from the late 19th century to the middle of the 20th century Features original essays by academics curators and conservators from around the world including those from France Germany the United States the United Kingdom Japan Turkey and Argentina The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Impressionism is an invaluable text for students and academics studying Impressionism and late 19th century European art Post Impressionism modern art and modern French cultural history Manet's Modernism Michael Fried, 1996 Fried put forward a highly original beholder centered account of the evolution of a central tradition in French painting from Chardin to Courbet P 4 of cover The Inherent Potential in Art Performance Iris Julian, 2025-08-13 This book spotlights artworks and art performances whose common denominator is the theme of self representation of artists in the woman category in scenes of love and sexuality Pursuing the research practice of deep drilling this study presents various methodologies and research directions to create diverse perspectives on the selected artworks This book combines historical outlines based on art history visual culture studies new methodologies in theatre studies and digressions into sociology Philosophical readings will complement the resulting multiple perspective in which figures of thought such as transimmanence the theory of performativity and body mind dualism are of specific interest This research brings to the fore networks of sedimented and entangled histories and their role in shaping our ways of seeing This study will be of great interest to scholars and students in dance dance performance and art performance

The Marble Faun Nathaniel Hawthorne, 2002-01-17 Murder and romance innocence and experience dominate this sinister novel set in mid 19th century Rome Three young American artists and their friend an Italian count find their lives irrevocably linked when one of them commits a violent crime of passion Hawthorne s final novel is must reading for its symbolic narrative of the Fall of Man

Modernism and Still Life Tobin Claudia Tobin, 2020-03-02 Explores the still life spirit in modern painting prose dance sculpture and poetry Challenges the conventional positioning of still life a minor genre in art history Proposes a radical alternative to narratives of modernism that privilege speed and motion by revealing forms of stillness and still life at the heart of modern literature and visual culture Provides the first study of still life to consider the genre across modern literature visual cultures and dance Uncovers connections and cultural exchange between networks of European and American artists including the Bloomsbury Group and Wallace Stevens The late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries have been characterised as the age of speed but they also witnessed a reanimation of still life across different art forms This book takes an original approach to still life in modern literature and the visual arts by examining the potential for movement and transformation in the idea of stillness and the ordinary It ranges widely in its material taking Czanne and literary responses to his still life painting as its point of departure It investigates constellations of writers visual artists and dancers including D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf David Jones Winifred Nicholson Wallace Stevens and lesser known figures including Charles Maureon and Margaret Morris Claudia Tobin reveals that at the heart of modern art were forms of stillness that were intimately bound up with movement the still life emerges charged with animation vibration and rhythm an unstable medium unexpectedly vital and well suited to the expression of modern concerns

Symptom of Beauty Francette Pacteau, 2013-06-01 For a woman in the Western world there is no escaping beauty Either she possesses it or she lacks it If she lacks it she may hope to gain it If she already has it she will certainly lose it But what is it Not an objective thing Francette Pacteau tells us but a generic term for an unspecifiable number of psychological experiences in the mind of the observer What these experiences are what causes them and how they manifest themselves as a notion of beauty is the subject of this book Less interested in the contingent object of desire than the fantasy that frames it Pacteau considers the staging of the aesthetic emotion Her analysis extends from the Classical ideals of beauty through Renaissance poetry to the recent formulations of Hollywood Her book is an ambitious attempt to describe the mise en sc ne of beauty within a particular field of representations that of the beauty of a woman

Political Landscape Martin Warnke, 2013-06-01 We all know what the political landscape is and politicians and journalists never tire of referring to it But in this ingenious and original book Martin Warnke takes that well worn metaphor literally and uses it to reveal just how politicized the real landscape of continental Europe has been for centuries The author finds his evidence of humanity's intervention in nature in the form of monuments and milestones gardens roads and border crossings in landscape paintings and maps even in fact in the anthropomorphic interpretations once given to formations of hills and rocks The Political Landscape is underpinned with a fascinating array of examples and illustrations many of which will be new even to experts in the art of landscape and related disciplines Eyes of Love Stephen Kern, 1996 In Eyes of Love

Stephen Kern offers a bold reinterpretation of women in art and literature Children's Culture and the Avant-Garde Marilynn Strasser Olson, 2013-03-05 This volume explores the mutual influences between children's literature and the avant garde Olson places particular focus on fin de siècle Paris where the Avant garde was not unified in thought and there was room for modernism to overlap with children's literature and culture in the Golden Age The ideas explored by artists such as Florence Upton Henri Rousseau Sir William Nicholson Paula Modersohn Becker and Marc Chagall had been disseminated widely in cultural productions for children their work in turn influenced children's culture These artists turned to children's culture as a new way of seeing allied to a contemporary interest in international artistic styles Children's culture also has strong ties to decadence and to the grotesque the latter of which became a distinctively Modernist vision This book visits the qualities of the era that were defined as uniquely childlike the relation of childhood to high and low art and the relation of children's literature to fin de siècle artistic trends Topics of interest include the use of non European figures the Golliwogg approaches to religion and pedagogy to oppression and motherhood to Nature in a post Darwinian world and to vision in art and life Olson's unique focus covers new ground by concentrating not simply on children's literature but on how childhood experiences and culture figure in art
