Manifesto Of A Tenured Radical:

Manifesto of a Tenured Radical Cary Nelson, 1997-04-01 In an age when innovative scholarly work is at an all time high the academy itself is being rocked by structural change Funding is plummeting Tenure increasingly seems a prospect for only the elite few Ph D s are going begging for even adjunct work Into this tumult steps Cary Nelson with a no holds barred account of recent developments in higher education Eloquent and witty Manifesto of a Tenured Radical urges academics to apply the theoretical advances of the last twenty years to an analysis of their own practices and standards of behavior In the process Nelson offers a devastating critique of current inequities and a detailed proposal for change in the form of A Twelve Step Program for Academia

Manifestoes Janet Lyon, 2018-09-05 For more than three hundred years manifestoes have defined the aims of radical groups individuals and parties while galvanizing revolutionary movements As Janet Lyon shows the manifesto is both a signal genre of political modernity and one of the defining forms of aesthetic modernism Ranging from the pamphlet wars of seventeenth century England to dyke and ACT UP manifestoes of the 1990s her extraordinarily accomplished book offers the first extended treatment of this influential form of discourse Lyon demonstrates that the manifesto usually perceived as the very model of rhetorical transparency is in fact a complex ideologically inflected genre one that has helped to shape modern consciousness Lyon explores the development of the genre during periods of profound historical crisis The French Revolution generated broadsides that became templates for the texts of Chartism the Commune and late nineteenth century anarchism while in the twentieth century the historical avant garde embraced a revolutionary discourse that sought in the manifesto s polarizing polemics a means for disaggregating and publicizing radical artistic movements More recently in the manifestoes of the 1960s the wretched of the earth called for either the full realization or the final rejection of the idea of the universal subject paving the way for contemporary contestations of identity among second and third wave feminists and queer activists

Class in Education Deborah Kelsh, Dave Hill, Sheila Macrine, 2009-09-10 In contemporary pedagogy class has become one nomadic sign among others it has no referent but only contingent allusions to similarly traveling signs Class that is no longer explains social conflicts and antagonisms rooted in social divisions of labor but instead portrays a cultural carnival of lifestyles consumptions tastes prestige and desire or obscures social conflicts through technicist accounts of incomes and jobs Class in Education brings back class as a materialist analysis of social inequalities originating at the point of production and reproduced in all cultural practices Addressing a wide range of issues from the interpretive logic of the new humanities to racism to reading school level curricula to educational policy the contributors focus on the effects that the different understandings of class have on various sites of pedagogy and open up new spaces for a materialist pedagogy and critical education in the times of globalization and the regimes of the digital
