Manifestoes Of Surrealism:

Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton, 1969 Presents the essential ideas of the founder of French surrealism

Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton, 1972 Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton, 1969 Manifestoes of surrealism André Breton, 1969 Mad Muses and the Early Surrealists Justin Vicari, 2011-11-08 The early surrealists attempted to create art directly from the unconscious but the resulting art often reveals the stamp of its age It is generally accepted that a certain macho sensibility prevailed within the movement excluding queer sensibilities and reducing women to object status In startling new readings of Breton Bataille Cocteau Artaud Crevel and others Justin Vicari examines the intersections between surrealism and mental illness deploying an interdisciplinary approach which includes aesthetic theory radical politics and psychoanalysis Of particular interest is the representation of the ideal woman as not only sexually available but mentally ill a hysteric muse representing a kind of authenticity lost in modern life Surrealism, Occultism and Politics Tessel M. Bauduin, Victoria Ferentinou, Daniel Zamani, 2017-10-16 This volume examines the relationship between occultism and Surrealism specifically exploring the reception and appropriation of occult thought motifs tropes and techniques by Surrealist artists and writers in Europe and the Americas from the 1920s through the 1960s Its central focus is the specific use of occultism as a site of political and social resistance ideological contestation subversion and revolution Additional focus is placed on the ways occultism was implicated in Surrealist discourses on identity gender sexuality utopianism and radicalism Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05 Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Collège de Sociologie 1937-39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism's mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens The Collège de Sociologie and Georges Bataille's theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions The Collège and Bataille's dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille's theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Collège's thoughts on the sacred it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre André Breton André Breton,2003-10 This is a kind of essence of Breton variously translated by some of our finest writers each of whom highlights different facets of Breton s complex work Mark Polizzotti s useful introduction provides context and a brief analysis of the artist and his times Diane di Prima author of Recollections of My Life as a Woman Mark Polizzotti who is a poet a translator and the author of the definitive biography of Andr Breton has chosen stellar translations of Breton s dazzling poetry and placed it in its lively context This shapely introduction to the life and work of Andr Breton is smart concise and exciting I cannot imagine a better one Ron Padgett poet and translator of The Complete Poems of Blaise Cendrars The Poets for the Millennium Series generally and Andr Breton s Selected Works specifically offers a workable image of an author and the work and the conjuncture all at once What comes across is a vivid presentation of Andre Breton not just as an art czar a manifesto merchant but a serious haunted inventive and strangely profound poet of the imagination who invented or archeologized new ways of dreaming but insisted on bearing witness with them in the actual world Polizzotti does justice as I think no other writer has to the double burden of Breton s work Robert Kelly A superbly chosen selection of Breton s poetry and prose translated in every case with an elegant intelligence and preceded by an unusually thorough introduction showing quite exactly how the poet s life informed each epoch of his work It proves again the remarkable un boringness of Breton and how important he is now to our own poetry and to us Mary Ann Caws author of The Surrealist Look An Erotics of Encounter and editor of The Surrealist Painters and Poets Visualizing Theory Lucien Taylor,2014-02-04 Visualizing Theory is a lavishly illustrated collection of provocative essays occasional pieces and dialogues that first appeared in Visual Anthropology Review between 1990 and 1994 It contains contributions from anthropologists from cultural literary and film critics and from image makers themselves Reclaiming visual anthropology as a space for the critical representation of visual culture from the naive realist and exoticist inclinations that have beleaguered practitioners efforts to date Visualizing Theory is a major intervention into this growing field The Theater and Cinema of Buster Keaton Robert Knopf,2018-06-05 Famous for their stunts gags and images Buster Keaton s silent films have enticed everyone from Hollywood movie fans to the surrealists such as Dal and Bu uel Here Robert Knopf offers an unprecedented look at the wide ranging appeal of Keaton s genius considering his vaudeville roots and his ability to integrate this aesthetic into the techniques of classical Hollywood cinema in the 1920s When young Buster was being hurled about the stage by his comically irate father in the family s vaudeville act The Three Keatons he was perfecting his acrobatic skills timing humor and trademark stone face As Knopf demonstrates such theatrics would serve Keaton well as a film director and star By isolating elements of vaudeville within works that have previously been considered classical Knopf reevaluates Keaton s films and how they function The book combines vivid visual descriptions and illustrations that enable us to see Keaton at work staging his memorable images and gags such as a three story wall collapsing on him Steamboat Bill Jr 1928 and an avalanche of boulders chasing him down a mountainside Seven Chances 1925 Knopf explains how Keaton s stunts and gags served as fanciful departures from his films storylines and how they nonetheless reinforced a strange sense of reality that of a machine like world with a mind of its own In comparison to Chaplin and Lloyd Keaton made more elaborate use of natural locations The scene in The Navigator for example where Buster brandishes a swordfish to fend off another swordfish derives much of its power from actually being shot under water Such hyper literalism was but one element of Keaton s films that inspired the surrealists Exploring Keaton s influence on Salvador Dal Luis Bu uel Federico Garc a Lorca and Robert Desnos Knopf suggests that Keaton s achievement extends beyond Hollywood into the avant garde The book concludes with an examination of Keaton s late career performances in Gerald Potterton s The Railrodder and Samuel Beckett s Film and locates his legacy in the work of Jackie Chan Blue Man Group and Bill Irwin
