They Call Me Jake - 2 Jakob Smith, 2024-10-11 WE ARE ALL WANDERERS ON THIS EARTH OUR HEARTS ARE FULL OF WONDER AND OUR SOULS DEEP WITH DREAMS ROMANY GYPSY SAYING Jakob Smith was a sometimes wild and reckless youth whose passion in life was to travel to new countries Wherever he went he was interested in the local history daily life and culture of the people During the daylight hours he enjoyed visiting museums religious sites zoos and national parks At night contrary to his daytime wanderings he would enjoy drinking beer and mixing with the local people in neighbourhood bars or restaurants He would attempt to talk with anyone despite sometimes language difficulties Frequently these conversations took place in places of ill repute where hookers and petty criminals made up the numbers They conned him relentlessly but their stories true or otherwise were often amusing and worth the few drinks they cost Now somewhat more mature he looks back on such times with fond memories So many people met only once for just a few sometimes drunken moments but never forgotten Despite the odd black eye and a couple of nights spent in lock up was it worth it I must say yes as if I had my youth over I would probably go down the same path The few bad times fade into obscurity and the many good times prone to exaggeration just seem to get better with age A TRAVEL STORY DIFFERENT FROM MOST ENTERTAINING INFORMATIVE AT TIMES JAKOB QUITE SIMPLY LOVES TRAVELLING NEW PLACES AND NEW PEOPLE ARE HIS LIFE The War in the Pacific Duane Ryan, US Army Military History Institute, 1978 Coming Up Neil

mysterious disability which he knows he must hide is both protection and curse as he orbits the high horror and low humor of a catastrophic age Told in a blue collar English that regains freshness by eschewing the mind set of literary language Fredy's picaresque life as perhaps the only Nordic Superman ever is deep dyed in layers of irony and attains a mind inverting resolution

A Blue Sea of Blood Donald M. Kehn, 2009-01-15 On the morning of March 1 1942 the WWI era destroyer USS Edsall under orders to deliver some forty Army Air Force fighter crews to the beleaguered island of Java split off from the USS Whipple and the tanker Pecos and was never seen again by Allied forces Despite the later discovery of bodies identified as Edsall crew members near a remote airfield on the coast of Celebes what happened to the ship remains a matter of mystery and perhaps deliberate obfuscation This book explores the many puzzling facets of the Edsall's disappearance in order to finally tell the full story of the fate of the vessel and her crew Based on exhaustive research of the historical record including newly deciphered Japanese documents and previously unrevealed material from the crew's family members A Blue Sea of Blood offers a painstaking reconstruction of the ship's history The book investigates not only the Edsall's mysterious final action but also her wide ranging pre war career and the curious uses to which her story was put generally under false pretenses first by the pre war US Navy and then by the Japanese wartime propaganda machine And finally military historian Donald Kehn considers the circumstances surrounding the curious obscurity of the Edsall's heroic service and final battle in American histories Redressing six decades of official indifference Kehn's account recovers a significant chapter missing from the history of World War II and tells a long overdue story of courage and tragic loss
