Mankind In The Making Story Of Human Evo:

Human Evolution Through Developmental Change Nancy Minugh-Purvis, Ken McNamara, 2002-01-11 This book reflects two major strands of research in the study of human heterochrony the change in the timing and rate of development of individuals

Mankind in the Making, 1960 Debating Humankind's Place in Nature, 1860-2000 Richard G. Delisle, 2015-07-14 This text the only one of its kind on the market surveys the development of the field of human evolution from its inception through today It provides students with a broad contrast enabling them to fully understand the value and role of current paleoanthropological research Features An historical approach Establishes for students the nature of paleoanthropology through the historical development of the field from 1860 through 2000 and shows students that paleoanthropology is a remarkably progressive field A focus on the debates in the field of human evolution especially the phylogenetic or genealogical debates Analyzes four distinct debates presented separately from their inception to the present

- 1 Humankind's place among the primates
- 2 The place of the australopithecines relative to the human line
- 3 Debates on human phylogeny proper
- 4 Proposed scenarios of hominization

Presentation and analysis of the viewpoints of over 150 scholars Gives students a valuable reference work for the future includes over 1200 references in the bibliography as well as a comprehensive text for today For junior senior courses in Human Evolution and Paleoanthropology in Anthropology departments

Humans Sergio Almécija, 2023-05-23 How did humanity evolve And what does our evolutionary history tell us about what it means to be human These questions are fundamental to our identity as individuals and as a species and to our relationship with the world But there are almost as many answers to them as there are scientists who study these topics This book brings together more than one hundred top experts who share their insights on the study of human evolution and what it means for understanding our past present and future Sergio Almécija asks leading figures across paleontology primatology archaeology genetics and many other disciplines about their lives their work and the philosophical significance of human evolution They reflect on questions that are both fun and profound What set you down your career path Are humans special Where and when would you travel in a time machine Does human evolution offer lessons for society Is evolution compatible with spirituality and religion Humans features a remarkably accomplished cast of contributors including Kay Behrensmeyer Frans de Waal Nina Jablonski Richard Leakey Robert Sapolsky and Richard Wrangham Together they provide a refreshing personable engaging cross disciplinary and thought provoking exploration of different even diametrically opposed ideas about our nature and evolution what makes humans unique and what our future might hold This book also offers practical suggestions for readers seeking to embark on a scientific career
