My Third Escape:

My three years in Manipur : and escape from the recent mutiny Ethel St. Clair Grimwood, 2025-03-02 In My Three Years in Manipur And Escape from the Recent Mutiny Ethel St Clair Grimwood offers a gripping first hand account of her experiences in the tumultuous region of Manipur during a period of considerable political and social upheaval in British India. Written in a vivid and engaging prose style that reflects the heightened emotions of her experiences, Grimwood's narrative blends personal memoir with historical documentation, providing a unique perspective on the complexity of colonial relationships and the profound realities of war. The book serves not only as a thrilling adventure but also as an invaluable record of a woman's resilience in the face of adversity amid the backdrop of the 1857 Indian Rebellion, showcasing the intersection of gender and colonialism in the literary context of the time. Ethel St Clair Grimwood, a remarkable figure of her era, was born into a colonial tapestry that likely influenced her narrative approach. As the wife of a British officer stationed in India, her insights are imbued with both personal experience and an acute observation of societal dynamics, reflecting her deep empathy for the indigenous populations. Grimwood's perspective as a woman in a male-dominated society adds layers of complexity to the narrative, highlighting the often overlooked voices of women in colonial literature. This compelling memoir is highly recommended for readers interested in colonial history, women's studies, and military narratives. Grimwood's eloquent storytelling allows contemporary audiences to engage with a pivotal historical moment through the eyes of one who lived it, making it an essential addition to the canon of British colonial texts.

This is the story of what a Woman s patience can endure and what a Man s resolution can achieve If the machinery of the Law could be depended on to fathom every case of suspicion and to conduct every process of inquiry with moderate assistance only from the lubricating influences of oil of gold the events which fill these pages might have claimed their share of the public attention in a Court of Justice But the Law is still in certain inevitable cases the pre engaged servant of the long purse and the story is left to be told for the first time in this place As the Judge might once have heard it so the Reader shall hear it now No circumstance of importance from the beginning to the end of the disclosure shall be related on hearsay evidence When the writer of these introductory lines Walter Hartright by name happens to be more closely connected than others with the incidents to be recorded he will describe them in his own person When his experience fails he will retire from the position of narrator and his task will be continued from the point at which he has left it off by other persons who can speak to the circumstances under notice from their own knowledge just as clearly and positively as he has spoken before them Thus the story here presented will be told by more than one pen as the story of an offence against the laws is told in Court by more than one witness with the same object in both cases to present the truth always in its most direct and most intelligible aspect and to trace the course of one complete series of events by making the persons who have been most closely connected with them at each successive stage relate their own experience word for word Let Walter Hartright teacher of drawing aged twenty eight years be heard first The Unusual Suspects Charles Dickens, Edgar Allan Poe, Anna Katharine Green, Mary Roberts Rinehart, John Kendrick Bangs, Agatha Christie, Robert Barr, Ellis Parker Butler, Maurice Leblanc, Wilkie Collins, Edgar Wallace, Melville Davisson Post, R.
