My Traitors Heart A South African Exile Returns:

My Traitor's Heart Rian Malan, 2018-09-01 An essay collection that offers a fascinating glimpse of post apartheid South Africa from the bestselling author of My Traitor's Heart The Sunday Times The Lion Sleeps Tonight is Rian Malan's remarkable chronicle of South Africa's halting steps and missteps taken as blacks and whites try to build a new country In the title story Malan investigates the provenance of the world famous song recorded by Pete Seeger and REM among many others which Malan traces back to a Zulu singer named Solomon Linda He follows the trial of Winnie Mandela he writes about the last Afrikaner an old Boer woman who settled on the slopes of Mount Meru he plunges into President Mbeki's AIDS policies of the 1990s and finally he tells the story of the Alcock brothers sons of Neil and Creina whose heartbreaking story was told in My Traitor's Heart two white South Africans raised among the Zulu and fluent in their language and customs The twenty one essays collected here combined with Malan's sardonic interstitial commentary offer a brilliantly observed portrait of contemporary South Africa a grimly realistic picture of a nation clinging desperately to hope The Guardian Heritage Formation and the Senses in Post-Apartheid South Africa Duane Jethro, 2020-05-11 In this book Duane Jethro creates a framework for understanding the role of the senses in processes of heritage formation He shows how the senses were important for crafting and successfully deploying new nation building heritage projects in South Africa during the postapartheid period The book also highlights how heritage dynamics are entangled in evocative changing sensory worlds Jethro uses five case studies that correlate with the five main Western senses Examples include touch and the ruination of a series of art memorials how vision was mobilised to assert the authority of the state sponsored Freedom Park project in Pretoria how smell memories of apartheid era social life in Cape Town informed contemporary struggles for belonging after forced removal how taste informed debates about the attempted rebranding of Heritage Day as barbecue day and how the sound of the vuvuzela popularized during the FIFA 2010 Football World Cup helped legitimize its unofficial African and South African heritage status This book makes a valuable contribution to the field of sensory studies and with its focus on aesthetics and material culture is in sync with the broader material turn in the humanities The end of colonial rule : nationalism and decolonization Toyin Falola, 2000 In this fourth volume of the Africa series Falola presents various aspects of African history and culture from the period of World War II to the time when African countries became free of European rule The book's primary aim is to present the broad picture of Africa in the last decades of colonial rule The theme of nationalism occupies a prominent place four chapters are devoted to its analysis including the contributions of women which have generally been ignored This period of African history was also a time of reform when Africa actually began to see significant changes Various chapters are devoted to those reforms and other important social aspects of the time notably health business and education The authors pay attention to the role of Africans in initiating some of these major changes In the second part of the book the themes are analyzed chronologically focusing on each region in turn The final part reflects on what colonialism meant for Africa both during the period of European rule and since independence The concluding chapters prepare the reader to understand contemporary Africa which is covered in Volume 5 the last in the series This is the fourth volume in a series of textbooks entitled Africa Contributors to the volumes are African Studies teachers from a variety of schools and settings Writing from their individual areas of expertise these authors work together to break stereotypes about Africa focusing instead on the substantive issues of the African past from the perspectives of Africans themselves The organization of the books is flexible enough to suit the needs of any instructor and the texts include illustrations maps and timelines to make cultural and historical movements clearer Suggestions for further reading that will help students broaden their own interests are also included Africa challenges the accepted ways of studying Africa and encourages students who are eager to learn about the diversity of the African experience This volume delivers the goods wonderfully well Its strength lies in its readability for the target audience Its writers are interested in communicating and bear their expertise gently Journal of African History Volume 45 2004 Transformation ,1994 My Traitor's Heart Rian Malan,1991 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1994 My Traitor's Heart Rian Malan,1990 Fast Forward from Schoonwater Willem Fritz,2007 A funny quirky and poignant coming of age story of a generation of ordinary South Africans who had to stumble their way through extraordinary times It is a story of hope as past and present come together to allow for a new and more hopeful beginning The reader meets a series of bizarre characters an epileptic truck driver who has visions of the Mother Mary with tears of blood running down her cheeks the Baking Queen of the Northern Free State who tries to save six asparagus quiches and kills herself and ten schoolchildren in the process auntie Baby Bothma who fled her home town only to find solace in the arms of a Polish count and his wife Policy Speech Kwazulu (South Africa). Chief Minister,1986 The Butte Irish David M. Emmons,1989-02-01 In this pioneering study David Emmons tells the story of Butte's large and assertive population of Irish immigrants He traces their backgrounds in Ireland the building of an ethnic community in Butte the nature and hazards of their work in the copper mines and the complex interplay between Irish nationalism and worker consciousness From a treasure trove of Irish stuff the reports minutes and correspondence of the major Irish American organizations in Butte Emmons shows how the stalwart supporters of the RELA and the Ancient Order of Hibernians marched and drilled for Irish freedom and how as they ran the town the miners union and the largest mining companies they used this tradition of ethnic cooperation to ensure safe and steady work Irish mines taking care of Irish miners Butte was new overwhelmingly Irish and extraordinarily dangerous the ideal place to test the seam between class and ethnicity
