Sketchbook Huck Scarry, 1994 This charming book presents illustrator Huck Scarry's impressions in watercolors pencil sketches and journal entries of a Venice most tourists never see Scarry reveals the hidden charms and subtle moods of this ancient city in more than 120 full color pages filled with images ranging from detailed drawings of little known piazzas and monochrome studies of Venetian cats to panoramic watercolor renderings of the Grand Canal His illustrations and accompanying texts are a testament to Scarry's love affair with this endlessly fascinating city of water wind light and shadow With an acute and ironical eye and a light hand Scarry studies Venice's unique angles whims and details Whenever I could I would take my box of paints my sketchbook and my folding chair and go painting through the streets of Venice and at the lagoon The drawings filled my portfolio and became the beginning of my Venetian diary His observations of moving and changing colors atmospheres and perspectives reflect the wonders of a stay in the city      My VENICE Barbara

Athanassiadis, 2014-08-12 ABOUT THE BOOK MY VENICE An intimate look at the Myth History and the magic of its Arts I liked the way the city had attracted my attention But in order to discover it I asked it to stop hiding behind its masks I wanted it real To allow me to discover its secrets understand its problems and hold a direct conversation with it And it was promised to me and all disguises were thrown off as our conversation began A trip through time myth History the magic of Art and life is what Barbara Athanassiadis manages to achieve with the discerning eye of an experienced traveller It is the same eye that captured reflections of Italy in her earlier narratives the books A Year in Tuscany and Feeling Rome My Venice is the final book left to complete her unique literary trilogy that approaches time place and people both in the past and in the present Without directing our steps the author transports us through the canals the narrow streets and the squares of Venice and she focuses our attention on works of Nature and Art drawing on legends and historical omissions The Winged Lion leisurely embraces the shoulders of our romantic heroine and the Seagull's Flight even reaches the Empress Sissy in Venice The Tiny Murano Spheres roll down and stop before The Fork of the Byzantine Princess Torcello flirts with the Venetian

Venetian Painting in the 15th Century Otto Pächt, 2003 Otto Pächt one of the most significant art historians of the Vienna School and well known for his analyses of Early Netherlandish art turns his attention in this publication to the humanist circle of Early Renaissance painters in Venice dominated by Jacopo Bellini his sons Gentile and Giovanni and also his son in law Andrea Mantegna It was a period of newly awakened interest in the Antique of studies made directly from nature and of trial and error in the technique of perspective And in addition a new awareness of the role of light and colour in the devotional and often monumental images of the Madonna of altarpieces and of allegories contributed to the founding of what we now recognise as the hall mark of Venetian painting that culminated with Titian Of the Bellini family it has been Giovanni who was generally regarded as the major figure of the dynasty Pächt however devotes particular attention to Jacopo's work interpreting it as the basis for his sons later development He analyses Jacopo's London and Paris Sketchbook drawings demonstrating where Late Gothic elements can be seen to be overtaken by the need to give perspective depth to the image and how subsequent painting took account of these changes This is also the essence of Pächt's examination of Mantegna's work where the construction of space and depth is the key to our understanding of Mantegna's creative process Turning to the next generation of the Bellini family Pächt's guides our eyes to appreciate the refinement and perception of Gentile's portraits and finally takes us step by step through the works of Giovanni where fantasy combines with the play of colour and light in creating compositions devotional images and landscape settings of perfect harmony and beauty
