Howells ,1893 My Year in a Log Cabin (Classic Reprint) W. D. HOWELLS, 2018-02 Excerpt from My Year in a Log Cabin He had a passion for nature as tender and genuine and as deeply moralized as that Of the English poets by whom it had been nourished and he taught us children all that he felt for the woods and fields and Open skies all our walks had led into them and under them It was the fond dream of his boys to realize the trials and privations which he had painted for them in such rosy hues and even if the only clap boarded dwelling on the property had not been occupied by the miller we should have disdained it for the log cabin in which we took up our home till we could build a new house About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
