returning to time and again Chelsea Matinee – Memoirs of an Easy Woman B.K. Smith, 2014-07-03 For our first special date I chose a dress that would be special The texture was crisp but not solid as taffeta or poplin it was capable of floating It was fine cotton unusual for an evening dress but the color was graphite with a slight flair like lakes in soft pencil on cartridge paper The top was fitted to my narrow frame not too low but with unfussy chemise shoulders The waist was slightly dropped so that my long torso was straight like a pencil from there the skirt cut on a bias flowed and floated over stiff netting On the shoulder I had pinned my mother's gold brooch a rose On one of its petals shone a diamond dewdrop It was seven o'clock Then eight o'clock Then nine I waited I hardly knew him and already he was late probably already bored with me they all get bored eventually I knew why It was vanity I didn't feel attractive or alluring or desired I quickly dismissed any notion of giving him a piece of my mind I pulled up my skirt and undid my garters and carefully rolled down my sheer black silk stockings I folded the stockings up together and put them on the table next to a vase of gladioli After that I painted my toenails Polynesian Pink to match my fingernails I wiggled my toes while I waited for my toenails to dry and then I unfolded the stockings and rolled them back up my legs When I had done up my garters I put on my shoes all done and I waited some more I was just another woman at his disposal which made me disposable The fact that I aspired to be a great painter meant nothing to him What happens when you fall in love with a man with no conscience When you have been seduced and abandoned and left for dead How do you reconcile your life your truth your fiction and your memories You spend the better part of your life trying to forget and then you remember it one last time You write the story from a safe distance of more than thirty years You write it from memory where the true essence of the affair resides and you release it into the cosmos finally forever May he rest in pieces Memoirs of a Teenage Amnesiac Gabrielle Zevin, 2009-06-23 From the author of Elsewhere and the Birthright trilogy Gabrielle Zevin's Memoirs of a Teenage Amnesiac is an imaginative YA novel all about love and second chances If Naomi had picked tails she would have won the coin toss She wouldn't have had to go back for the yearbook camera and she wouldn't have hit her head on the steps She wouldn't have woken up in an ambulance with amnesia She certainly would have remembered her boyfriend Ace She might even have remembered why she fell in love with him in the first place She would understand why her best friend Will keeps calling her Chief She'd get all his inside jokes and maybe he wouldn't be so frustrated with her for forgetting things she can't possibly remember She'd know about her mom's new family She'd know about her dad's fiancée She wouldn't have to spend her junior year relearning all the French she supposedly knew already She never would have met James the boy with the questionable past and the even fuzzier future who tells her he once wanted to kiss her She wouldn't have wanted to kiss him back But Naomi picked heads Memoirs of a Teenage Amnesiac is a 2008 Bank Street Best Children's Book of the Year
