Myanmars External Trade An Overview In The Southeast Asian Context:

Myanmar's External Trade Mya Than,1992 The grim state of the Myanmar economy in the second half of the 1980s forced the previous government of the Burma Socialist Programme Party to liberalize its external and internal trade Since the military coup following political chaos in the later part of 1988 Japan the European Community and the United States have suspended new economic aid to Myanmar This has led to the present military government the State Law and Order Restoration Council SLORC to work towards closer cooperation in diplomatic and trade relations with other Southeast Asian countries and to further liberalize its trade sector This study explores and analyzes Myanmar s external trade and its trade relations with Southeast Asian nations many of which are members of the Association of Southeast Asian nations ASEAN and raises issues and prospects of economic cooperation with neighbouring countries in the region including the option for active participation in ASEAN

Economic Development of Myanmar Myat Thein,2004 There are a number of excellent studies by eminent Myanmar economists as well as scholars from abroad covering different post war periods and or various aspects of development in Myanmar What this book does is to bring them altogether as it were under one roof by recasting bits and pieces of their work according to the author s own understanding In doing so a holistic approach was adopted in order to have a well rounded account of developments over the past fifty years or more In addition an attempt has also been made to present the major developments at different periods of time between 1948 and 2000 in a simple but not over simplified reader friendly format so as to reach as wide an audience as possible It is the author s ardent wish that not only students and policy makers but Myanmar people in all walks of life will read the book discuss it and work together for a better future

Burmese Lives Eric Tagliacozzo,Wen-Chin Chang,2014-05 This volume explores the life stories of ordinary Burmese by drawing on the narratives of individual subjects and using an array of interdisciplinary approaches The constituted stories highlight the protagonists survival strategies in everyday life that demonstrate their constant courage and frustration in dealing with numerous social injustices and adversities

Beyond Borders Wen-Chin Chang,2015-01-16 The Yunnanese from southwestern China have for millennia traded throughout upland Southeast Asia Burma in particular has served as a back door to Yunnan providing a sanctuary for political refugees and economic opportunities for trade explorers Since the Chinese Communist takeover in 1949 and subsequent political upheavals in China an unprecedented number of Yunnanese refugees have fled to Burma Through a personal narrative approach Beyond Borders is the first ethnography to focus on the migration history and transnational trading experiences of contemporary Yunnanese Chinese migrants composed of both Yunnanese Han and Muslims who reside in Burma and those who have moved from Burma and resettled in Thailand Taiwan and China Since the 1960s Yunnanese Chinese migrants of Burma have dominated the transnational trade in opium jade and daily consumption goods Wen Chin Chang writes with deep knowledge of this trade s organization from the 1960s of mule driven caravans to the use of modern transportation and she reconstructs trading routes while examining embedded sociocultural meanings These Yunnanese migrants mobility attests to the prevalence of travel not only by the privileged but also by different kinds of people Their narratives disclose individual life processes as well as networks of connections modes of transportation and differences between the experiences of men and women Through traveling they have carried on the mobile livelihoods of their predecessors expanding overland trade beyond its historical borderlands between Yunnan and upland Southeast Asia to journeys further afield by land sea and air

Economic Development of Burma Khañ' Moñ' Kraññ' (Ū"),2000 Bringing together their own intimate knowledge of the country s problems and the possibilities that lie ahead scholars attempt to analyze the main factors that have stood in the way of Burma s participation in the worldwide surge of economic growth in the second half of the twentieth century and to devise ways in which the country can overcome these obstacles in the future

State Dominance in Myanmar Tin Maung Maung Than,2007 Focuses on the state s efforts to industrialize Myanmar first through direct intervention and planning under a socialist economic framework as interpreted by the state leaders 1948 88 and lately 1989 onwards through state managed outward orientation

Burma P. Carey,1997-07-28 An up to date collection of essays by leading academics and Burma specialists covering some of the key economic ethnic political and social problems which currently confront Burma The book is divided into four parts Politics and Constitution Making Foreign Policy Views from the Periphery and the Challenges of Development Peter Carey s introduction provides a useful historical background and assesses the political prospects for Aung San Suu Kyi s National League for Democracy following her 1995 release

Outsourcing the Polity Gerard McCarthy,2023-02-15 Outsourcing the Polity offers a new account of social outsourcing in post independence Myanmar demonstrating how the bankrupt post socialist junta mediated market reform in the 1990s and 2000s and forced private and non state actors to take the burden for social welfare Informed by research during Myanmar s decade of partial civilian rule 2011 2021 Gerard McCarthy examines how ideals and practices of non state welfare can both sustain democratic resistance and undermine social reform over time Rather than expand government led social action funded by direct taxation grassroots activists and democratic leaders after 2011 variously framed government social action as ineffective undesirable and even corrosive of civic norms They instead encouraged citizens to be self reliant and support each other including during disasters Powerful tycoons filled the social gap using public philanthropy to remake their reputations and to defend their ongoing expropriation of land and state assets from potential democratic redistribution With non state social actors more important than ever following Myanmar's return to dictatorship in 2021 Outsourcing the Polity casts new light on the lasting legacies of outsourcing for distributive politics Burma Robert I. Rotberg, 1998-06-01 This book examines the origins and consequences of Burma's current policies from military political social and economic perspectives It analyzes the Asian decision to constructively engage Burma especially in economic affairs versus the position of the United States and many other Western countries to treat Burma as a pariah Other chapters focus on the drug trade Burma produces more than 60 percent of the world's heroin the growing role of China as Burma's military and economic big brother political culture and democratic traditions the unsustainable nature of current economic growth shortfalls in education and health systems and Burma's potential for foreign investment Burma's Economy in the Twentieth Century Ian Brown, 2013-11-07 An incomparable introduction to Burma's political and economic history written by one of the premier economic historians of Southeast Asia Kolor. Journal on moving communities - Nr. 3. Identities ,

Regional Change in Industrializing Asia Leo van Grunsven, 2019-01-04 First published in 1998 this book responds to the dynamics of Industrializing Asia and the behavioural changes of actors which in response to changing internal and external forces have given rise to and are constantly giving rise to alterations in patterns of growth From a geographical perspective these are expressed in regional change understood as a reconstruction of spatial organization The imperatives of dynamic comparative advantage changing global or regional competitiveness and regional competition faced by different actors entities or territorial units can be identified as important forces underlying and shaping regional change This volume provides further illumination contextualization and interpretation of the spatiality of the economic reality in Industrializing Asia as well as the role played by and the implications for different actors The objectives of this book are 1 to outline the processes of regional change linked to responses in the form of restructuring and integrative and regionalization tendencies as well as the realignment of the global regional local divide in production systems complexes and the operation of firms associated with reorganization of production in the process of maintaining and reconfiguring comparative advantage 2 to highlight the wide scope of the process by considering differential units of analysis linked to the agents and manifestations of regional change and the role of scale in terms of the spatial units involved 3 to highlight the implications as to the current and future position or role of differential actors agents particularly nation state in shaping the new economic reality in the region and as a corollary its positioning in the global economic order Historical Dictionary of Burma \(Myanmar\) Donald M.
