Mysteries Of Mary The Fullness Of Discipleship:

Mysteries of Mary Bernhard Häring,1999 Drawing only on scriptural to reference Mary from the Annunciation through Pentecost Father Haring presents a cameo of the Mother of God In brief but thorough vignettes Häring captures the ways in which Mary models perfect discipleship for us Included are reflective intercessory prayers for Mary s mothering guidance in our own attempts at Christian discipleship      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002      A Practical Discipleship Model That Fosters Spiritual Maturity Owar Ojha Ojulu,2023-11-09 Jesus challenges us to live in him and continue living out the truth so that we claim our allegiance to Christ and live as disciples free from fear and from cultural customs that contradict the gospel message This project has found that the lack of discipleship training among the Anyuwaa churches has resulted in a lack of understanding of what this ministry entails teaching and making disciples In addition failure to embed elements of the Anyuwaa culture into the discipleship approach and the persistence of certain elements of Anyuwaa life that run counter to gospel beliefs has inflamed this crisis Therefore this book presents a call for the church to challenge the culture of syncretism and the fear of witchdoctors to shift its paradigm and begin interpreting the gospel message utilizing contextual elements but interpreting them through the lens of the gospel calling people to embrace gospel values within their own cultural context When we start interpreting strong cultural beliefs and traditions through the truth of the gospel it is proof that we have come to the best discipleship approach as we speak the truth of the gospel in the life our church and the hearts of our believers      Jesus, the New Adam Dennis J. Billy CSsR,2017-11-15 This book retells the narrative of Christ s redemptive journey by looking at some of the Gospel s underlying assumptions and showing how they are both reasonable and credible For Christians faith is not contrary to reason but presupposes and even builds on it This faith asks us to put aside whatever preconceptions we may have regarding the Gospel message and listen with an open heart to the way it speaks to the universal human condition The seed of hope buried deep within the mythologies of old is nothing but a faint reflection of God s dream for his creation For Christians this dream has entered the arena of history in the person of Jesus Christ the New Adam who sheds light on our human condition by making all things new Rev 21 5      Traditioning Disciples Colleen Mary Mallon,2011-01-01 In a globalized world and an age that cannot name itself how do Christian communities sustain a recognizable gospel identity How might examining tradition and identity formation from both theology and cultural anthropology help churches approach the challenges of being a follower of Jesus today With these questions in focus Colleen Mallon studies symbol systems in the works of anthropologists Mary Douglas Victor Turner and Clifford Geertz and places her findings in dialogue with a thick description of discipleship gleaned from the great Roman Catholic ecclesialogist Yves Congar OP The result is a reflection on gospel identity that will be invaluable to Christian ministers missionaries and students of theology interested in the social and theological processes of disciple formation      Mary in Our Search for Fullness of Life ,2006 Contributed papers presented at the Mariological Symposium held at NBCLC Bangalore during Feb 16 18 2006      The Ashgate Research Companion to Theological Anthropology Joshua R. Farris, Charles Taliaferro, 2016-03-09 In recent scholarship there is an emerging interest in the integration of philosophy and theology Philosophers and theologians address the relationship between body and soul and its implications for theological anthropology In so doing philosopher theologians interact with cognitive science biological evolution psychology and sociology Reflecting these exciting new developments The Ashgate Research Companion to Theological Anthropology is a resource for philosophers and theologians students and scholars interested in the constructive critical exploration of a theology of human persons Throughout this collection of newly authored contributions key themes are addressed human agency and grace the soul sin and salvation Christology glory feminism the theology of human nature and other major themes in theological anthropology in historic as well as contemporary contexts      Anointed for Discipleship Mary A. Ehle, 2022-09-01 The life of Christian discipleship begins at Baptism Through the life saving waters a new Christian is freed from sin shares in the death and Resurrection of Christ and is made a member of the Body of Christ the Church But with this gift from God comes important responsibilities This short booklet explores the Catholic understanding of the Sacrament of Baptism and the baptized Christian s important role in sharing the light of Christ The questions at the end of each short chapter will help readers reflect upon what it means to be a Christian disciple in the world today living lives of justice charity and love      Facing the Other Nigel Zimmermann, 2016-03-31 What is the significance of the body What might phenomenology contribute to a theological account of the body And what is gained by prolonging the overlooked dialogue between St John Paul II and Emmanuel Levinas Nigel Zimmermann answers these questions through the agreements and the tensions between two of the most important thinkers of the twentieth century John Paul II the Polish pope philosopher and theologian and Emmanuel Levinas the French Jewish philosopher of Lithuanian heritage were provocative thinkers who courageously faced and challenged the assumptions of their age Both held the human person in high regard and did their thinking with constant reference to God and to theological language Zimmermann does not shirk from the challenges of each thinker and does not hide their differences However he shows how they bequeath a legacy regarding the body that we would overlook at significant ethical peril We are called Zimmermann argues to face the other In this moment God refuses a banal marginalisation and our call to responsibility for the other person is issued in their disarming vulnerability In the body philosophy theology and ethics converge to call us to glory even in the paradox of lowly suffering      Traditioning Disciples Colleen Mary Mallon OP, PhD, 2011-01-01 In a globalized world and an age that cannot name itself how do Christian communities sustain a recognizable gospel identity How might examining tradition and identity formation from both theology and cultural anthropology help churches approach the challenges of being a follower of Jesus today With these questions in focus Colleen Mallon studies symbol systems in the works of anthropologists Mary Douglas Victor Turner and Clifford Geertz and places her findings in dialogue with a thick description of discipleship gleaned from the great Roman Catholic ecclesialogist Yves Congar OP The result is a reflection on gospel identity that will be invaluable to Christian ministers missionaries and students of theology interested in the social and theological processes of disciple formation

This Monastic Moment John W. de Gruchy, 2021-10-30 Kairos refers to moments in chronological time when all hell is breaking loose and we are called to change our ways before we are dragged into the abyss Kairos is apocalyptic time and it is here and now Such is the time in which we need to listen again to St Benedict of Nursia Far too many of us Christians have either been seduced by the false values of the age and the spirit of Christian triumphalism or else have been attracted to gnostic forms of spirituality that provide a means of escape from reality and responsibility Any delay in responding to this kairos moment increases the danger that we fail to change our ways and grasp the opportunity God gives us to receive the coming kingdom in greater fullness now So St Benedict __een hundred years a_er he wrote his Rule continues to tell us to listen wake up and run while there is still light _is is a time for both contemplation and action prayer and doing justice a time for mystics and prophets to join hands and hearts for the sake of the world From the Prologue This Monastic Moment John De Gruchy, 2023-09-28 Kairos is used in the New Testament to signify a pivotal moment in history a critical time of judgement and opportunity where chaos must be faced and one must change their ways before it becomes irreparable Confronted by the Covid 19 pandemic and mandatory isolation John de Gruchy felt a similar need to adapt and respond In doing so he found a deepening in his desire for authentic humanity genuine community and the opportunity affirm his conviction that true humanity is rooted in God wisdom and the struggle for justice The Friendships of Jesus James Russell Miller, 2020-03-26 Greater love has no one than this that he lay down his life for his friends You are My friends if you do what I command I no longer call you servants because a servant does not know his master s business Instead I have called you friends for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you John 15 13 15 George MacDonald said in an address The longer I live the more I am assured that the business of life is to understand the Lord Jesus Christ If this is true whatever sheds even a little light on the character or life of Christ is worth while Nothing reveals a man s heart better than his friendships The kind of friend he istells the kind of man he is The personal friendships of Jesus reveal many tender and beautiful things in his character They show us also what is possible for us in divine friendship for the heart of Jesus is the same yesterday and today and forever These chapters are only suggestivenot exhaustive If they make the way into close personal friendship with Jesus any plainer for those who hunger for such blessed intimacythat will be reward enough

Mary on the Eve of the Second Vatican Council John C. Cavadini, Danielle M. Peters, 2017-05-15 The Blessed Virgin Mary is uniquely associated with Catholicism and the century preceding the Second Vatican Council was arguably the most fertile era for Catholic Marian studies In 1964 Pope John Paul VI published the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church or Lumen Gentium LG the eighth chapter of which presents the most comprehensive magisterial teaching on the Blessed Virgin Mary As part of its Marian Initiative the Institute for Church Life at the University of Notre Dame invited scholars to a conference held at Notre Dame in October 2013 to reflect the rich Marian legacy on the eve of the Second Vatican Council. The essays unanimously stress that the Blessed Virgin Mary is not merely a peripheral figure in Christian faith and in the panorama of theology. More than fifty years after Lumen Gentium, students of theology as well as Marian devotees take their bearings from this document in order to promote the person of Mary and the study of Mariology as well as grow in authentic Marian piety. This book will have great appeal to students and scholars of Catholic theology and history, particularly those interested in Mariology.

The Joy of Discipleship Pope Francis, 2016-01-19. Dear friends, be glad! Do not be afraid of being joyful! Pope Francis from The Joy of Discipleship. Near the end of Luke's Gospel, two disciples slowly make their way home from Jerusalem to the village of Emmaus. At the outset, they are deeply saddened by Jesus' tragic death. By that evening, however, they have made a 180-degree turn from dejected disciples to followers filled with joy. A joy they simply must share with others as fast as they can. What accounts for this change? They have encountered the risen Christ. In The Joy of Discipleship Pope Francis reminds us that joy should be one of the defining characteristics of any person who has truly encountered Jesus This skillfully curated collection of homilies speeches and other documents from Pope Francis compiled and edited by James P Campbell offers a fresh perspective on why Christian disciples should be so joyful in the first place and how that joy might manifest itself in our individual daily lives Covering a broad range of themes Christ s Resurrection mercy wealth and poverty the Christian family and more The Joy of Discipleship moves us to meditate on Christ and then inspires us to move out from our own four walls jubilantly proclaiming God s transforming love in word and deed For anyone who wants what Pope Francis has an active abiding authentic love for Jesus Christ for the Church and for the people of this world The Joy of Discipleship will point the way This volume gives us a portrait of the Pope and what amazing joy fills his life his mind his teaching his discipleship From the foreword by Daniel Cardinal DiNardo     The Living Word™ Lesia Anslinger, Mary A.
