

The background of the entire image is a vibrant cosmic scene. The upper portion features a soft, glowing nebula in shades of pink, purple, and blue, with numerous small white stars scattered throughout. A bright, circular light source, possibly a sun or a distant galaxy core, is visible in the upper center. The lower portion of the image transitions into a dark, deep blue space filled with swirling patterns and a network of bright, jagged white lightning bolts that appear to be striking downwards from the upper section.
