The Continuations of Chrétien's Perceval Leah Tether,2012 The Continuations of Chretien de Troyes Perceval are here examined as constituting a discrete genre of medieval literature The notion of Continuation in medieval literature is a familiar one but difficult to define precisely Despite the existence of important texts which are commonly referred to as

Continuations such as Le Roman de la Rose Le Chevalier de la Charrette and of course the Perceval Continuations the mechanics and processes involved in actually producing a Continuation have found themselves indistinguishable from those associated with other forms of medieval r cuture The Perceval Continuations composed c 1200 1230 constitute a vast body of material which incorporates four separately authored Continuations each of which seeks to further in some way the unfinished Perceval of Chr tien de Troyes though they are not merely responses to his work Chronologically they were composed one after the other and the next in line picks up where the previous one left off they thus respond intertextually to each other as well as to Chr tien and only one actually furnishes the story as a whole with an ending Here these fascinating texts are used as a lens for examining defining and distinguishing the whole concept of a Continuation the author also employs theories as to what constitutes an end and what is unfinished alongside scrutiny of other medieval ends and Continuations Dr Leah Tether is a Postdoctoral Research Fellow at the Cultures of the Digital Economy Institute Anglia Ruskin University
