The Fathers of the Desert Emily F. Bowden, Aeterna Press, 1907 The lives of the Saints of the Desert have ever exercised a wonderful influence over the minds, not only of Catholics but of all who call themselves Christians, nor is it difficult to comprehend why it should be so now more than ever. The age in which we live distinguishes itself above all others by a restless longing to realize the past. Men are searching bog and marsh, moor and river, the wide expanse of downs, the tops of mountains, and the bottom of lakes to find out how our ancestors lived and to reproduce the men of the age of stone, bronze, or iron. The same sort of yearning curiosity exercises itself on the early Christians. If we had only Eusebius and Sozomen, it would be utterly impossible to picture to ourselves what were our ancestors in Christ The Catacombs tell us much but they are comparatively dumb In the lives of the Desert saints we have a most strangely authentic insight into the very hearts and thoughts as well as the way of life of men and women who lived hundreds of years ago Aeterna Press
