Mountain Man Jenika Snow, 2020-03-02 All stories in the Real Man series can be read as a complete standalone I was known in town as old money but lived off the land a present day caveman They called me the town recluse dubbed me a mountain man antisocial It was true But then she came into my life and turned everything I knew upside down It started with Bailey getting lost in the woods and finding herself on my doorstep She was sweet and innocent half my age and I had no control when the arousal built between us that night It ended with me taking her virginity in a passion filled night But then she was gone and I should have gone after her thrown her over my shoulder and demanded she was mine Four years later and our paths cross again I thought I was stronger able to control myself but where Bailey was concerned there was no doubt she called the shots She owned my heart She'd gotten under my skin in the best of ways and I knew this time around I wouldn't let her get away
