design I was bent on becoming a dramatist but being quite unknown I found it impossible to induce the managers of the Melbourne Theatres to accept or even to read a play At length it occurred to me I might further my purpose by writing a novel I should at all events secure a certain amount of local attention Up to that time I had written only one or two short stories and the Cab was not only the first book I ever published but the first book I ever wrote so to youth and lack of experience must be ascribed whatever was wanting in the book I repeat that the story was written only to attract local attention and no one was more astonished than I when it passed beyond the narrow circle for which it had originally been intended My mind made up on this point I enquired of a leading Melbourne bookseller what style of book he sold most of He replied that the detective stories of Gaboriau had a large sale and as at this time I had never even heard of this author I bought all his works eleven or thereabouts and read them carefully The style of these stories attracted me and I determined to write a book of the same class containing a mystery a murder and a description of low life in Melbourne This was the origin of the Cab The central idea i e the murder in a cab came to me while driving at a late hour to St Kilda a suburb of Melbourne but it took some time and much thought to work it out to a logical conclusion I was two months sketching out the skeleton of the novel but even so when I had written it the result proved unsatisfactory for I found I had not sufficiently well concealed the mystery upon which the whole interest of the book depended In the first draft I made Frettlby the criminal but on reading over the M S I found that his guilt was so obvious that I wrote out the story for a second time introducing the character of Moreland as a scape goat Mother Guttersnipe I unearthed in the slums off Little Bourke Street and I gave what I am afraid was perhaps too vivid a picture of her language and personality These I have toned down in the present edition Calton and the two lodging house keepers were actual personages whom I knew very well and I do not think I have exaggerated their idiosyncracies although many have I believe doubted the existence of such oddities All the scenes in the book especially the slums are described from personal observation and I passed a great many nights in Little Bourke Street gathering material Having completed the book I tried to get it published but every one to whom I offered it refused even to look at the manuscript on the ground that no Colonial could write anything worth reading
