the ways in which Angus Robertson replicated challenged or transformed the often highly criticised commercial practices of British publishers in order to develop an export trade for Australian books in the United Kingdom This book is the answer to the current void in the literary market for a substantial history of Australia s largest publisher and its role in the development of Australia s export book trade Places for Dead Bodies Gary J. When Bony

Was There: A Chronology of the Life and Career of Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte Kees de Hoog,2010

Using facts and clues gleaned from the Bony stories by Arthur Upfield Kees de Hoog has compiled a chronology of the personal life events and professional assignments of Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte This booklet uncovers the evidence and explains how it was pieced together to reveal the dates and other details The conclusions are presented with the findings of similar research by others into the location of each Bony novel Woven together they sketch the outline of the life career and travels of the internationally acclaimed fictional detective Australian Crime Fiction Stephen Knight,2018-06-28 Australian crime fiction has grown from the country s origins as an 18th century English prison colony Early stories focused on escaped convicts becoming heroic bush rangers or how the system mistreated those who were wrongfully convicted Later came thrillers about wealthy free settlers and lawless gold seekers and urban crime fiction including Fergus Hume s 1887 international best seller The Mystery of a Hansom Cab set in Melbourne The 1980s saw a surge of private eye thrillers popular in a society skeptical of police Twenty first century authors have focused on policemen and increasingly policewomen and finally indigenous crime narratives The author explores in detail this rich but little known national subgenre Man of Two Tribes Arthur W. Upfield,2020-06-01 Myra Thomas apparently dressed only in nightgown and slippers has walked off the train somewhere along the 650 kilometres of track that crosses the Nullarbor Plain With two camels and a dog Bony begins to search the desert in search of her He finds more than he bargains for only to find a group of people imprisoned in the extensive limestone caves beneath the desert plain This is surely one of the two or three strongest of Upfield s novels It is an eerie mixture of Aboriginal folk customs and white man s greed and lust for revenge Something of a study of abnormal psychology it nevertheless turns on people s very natural and nasty feelings This book is a splendid combination of plot setting and development from The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne Bony at Bermagui Arthur W. Upfield,2022-06-01 On a signboard at Cobargo I read the magic word Bermagui That s the place Zane Grey wrote about remarked my son That s the place I m looking for I decided And what a place Oh what a place The air like wine and as cool as that in the green fern tree depths of the gully beside my mountain home The surf everlastingly playing its music on the sand beach before the town and the great rocky headland to seaward Arthur Upfield was Australia s first international crime writer when he first stayed at Bermagui around the time of Zane Grey s visit there in 1936 This book holds a previously unknown Bony story set in Bermagui The Fish That Danced on its Tail an unpublished story on Big Game Fishing and stories on Marlin and Swordfish that Upfield wrote only for the Bermagui Anglers Club Also included are a chapter from his classic Bony novel The Mystery of Swordfish Reef and the only other Bony story A Wisp of Wool and Disk of Silver and many photographs from the Upfield family archives
